Certificate to be submitted by a bidder in an ILO competitive bidding procedure

The ILO expects all participants in its procurement process to adhere to the very highest standards of moral and ethical conduct and transparency, to prevent any conflict of interest and not to engage in any form of coercive, collusive, corrupt, or fraudulent practices.

With respect to its proposal submitted in response to the ILO's Invitation to Bid mentioned above, the bidder hereby certifies that:

1. The prices in its proposal have been arrived at independently without consultation, communication or agreement with any other interested companies, competitor or potential competitor with a view to restricting competition.
2. No attempt has been made or will be made by the bidder to influence any other bidder, organization, partnership or corporation to either submit or not submit a proposal.
3. The bidder will not offer, solicit or accept, directly or indirectly, any gratuity, gift, favour, entertainment, promises of future employment or other benefits to or from anyone in the ILO.
4. The bidder (both parent company and/or any subsidiaries) is not identified on, or associated with any individual, groups, undertakings and entities identified on, the list established pursuant to UN Security Council Resolution 1267 (Consolidated List).
5. The bidder (both parent company and/or any subsidiaries) will not use the funds received under any contract with the ILO to provide support to individuals, groups, undertakings or entities associated with terrorism.
6. The bidder (both parent company and/or any subsidiaries) is not the subject of any form of sanction imposed by an organization or body within the United Nations System, including the World Bank.

The ILO reserves the right to cancel or terminate with immediate effect and without compensation any offer of or contract arising from this bidding procedure in the event of any misrepresentation in relation to the above certifications.

Definitions of terms used in this declaration:

“coercive practice” is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, another or the property of another to influence improperly the actions of another.

“collusive practice” is any conduct or arrangement between two or more bidders or contractors, designed to achieve an improper purpose, including to influence improperly the actions of another or to set prices at an artificial level or in a non-competitive manner;

“conflict of interest” is a situation that gives rise to an actual, potential or perceived conflict between the interests of one party and another;

“corrupt practice” is the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of any advantage, in order to influence improperly the actions of another;

“fraudulent practice” is any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, another to obtain a financial or other benefit or to avoid an obligation;

CERTIFICATE
We, hereby certify that the proposal, budget and all its accompanying documents correctly and fairly reflect the financial and technical plan of the proposed project. We further certify that our institution will implement activities according to procedures laid out in the proposal and the terms and conditions agreed with the ILO.
