

Transformational change for gender equality through responsible business conduct - Certification programme

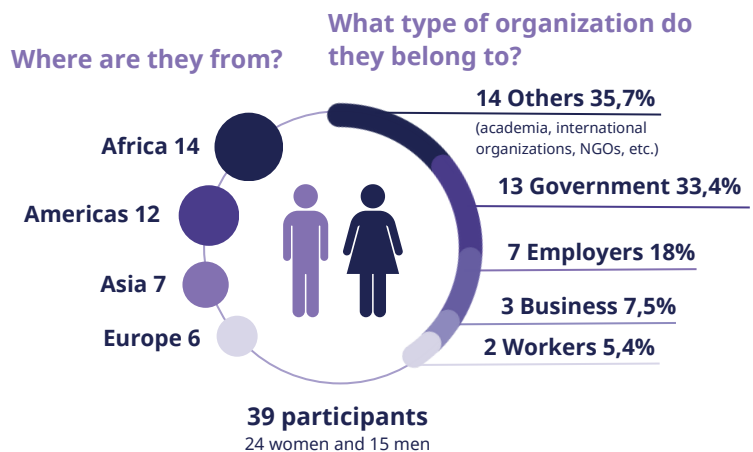

CORE LEARNING TRACK (14 NOVEMBER - 3 DECEMBER 2022)

ADVANCED LEARNING TRACK (14 NOVEMBER 2022 - 17 FEBRUARY 2023)

OBJECTIVE

This training course supports practitioners responsible for or with a demonstrated strong interest in policies and programmes related to responsible business conduct and gender equality/women's economic empowerment.

PARTICIPANTS

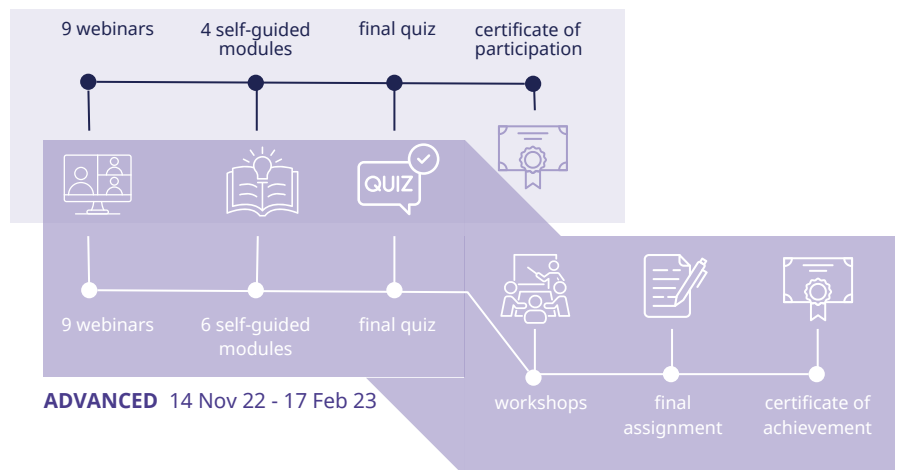

9 live webinars developed in consultation with ILO departments and technical units

- W1. How responsible business conduct can foster gender equality
- W2. Understanding the normative framework for gender equality
- W3. Understanding international guidance on responsible business conduct: the ILO MNE Declaration
- W4. The gender dimension of relevant international instruments on responsible business conduct
- W5. An enabling environment to foster gender equality and WEE: Governmental policies
- W6. Engaging with the private sector to foster gender equality and WEE: Business practices
- W7. The role of trade unions to foster gender equality and WEE
- W8. Leveraging women's entrepreneurship to foster gender equality and WEE
- W9. Closing webinar

STRUCTURE

CORE 14 Nov - 2 Dec 22

THEMATIC WEBINARS ORGANIZED IN COLLABORATION WITH: