I. Obituaries

Mr Yuriy Lyublin

1. The Director-General announces with deep regret the death, on 21 December 2015, of Mr Yuriy Lyublin, former First Deputy Minister of Labour and Social Development of the Russian Federation and regular Government member of the Governing Body and Government delegate to the International Labour Conference. Mr Lyublin represented his Government at sessions of the Governing Body and the International Labour Conference from 1998 to 2004. During the same period, he was also the Russian Federation delegate to the International Social Security Association (ISSA), in Geneva.
2. Yuriy Lyublin was born on 9 November 1946. He began working at 19 as a metalworker fitter, work that he returned to following a period of three years' military service. He enrolled at the National External Legal Studies Institute, graduating in 1975, subsequently attending the Academy of Social Sciences of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, from which he graduated in 1981. From 1981 to 1991 he worked in the Social Security Department of the USSR State Labour Commission, first as Deputy Head, then as Head of Department. In 1991 he was appointed Head of the Central Department of Pensions and Social Security Benefits of the USSR Ministry of Labour; from 1993 to 1994 he was Deputy Minister of Social Protection of the Russian Federation as well as acting First Deputy Chair of the Board of the Russian Federation Pension Fund. In 1996 he became First Deputy Minister of Labour and Social Development.
3. Yuriy Lyublin dedicated his working life and considerable intellectual powers as a jurist to the promotion and reinforcement of national social security and pensions in his country, for which he was honoured by the Government with the award of the Friendship of the Peoples Order in 1991 and his appointment in 2001 as an Honorary Legal Expert of the Russian Federation. He was a firm, lifelong supporter of social dialogue and tripartism and a close friend of the ISSA. The Governing Body will miss his expertise and his practical, common-sense approach to complex issues.
4. The Governing Body invites the Director-General to convey its condolences to the Government of the Russian Federation and to the family of Mr Yuriy Lyublin.

Mr Yousef Kara

5. The Director-General announces with deep regret the death, on 21 December 2015, of Mr Yousef Kara. Mr Kara had been a member of the Executive Board of the General Federation of Labour in Israel, the Histadrut, and was a Worker representative on the Governing Body, and a Workers' delegate (Israel) to the International Labour Conference.
6. Mr Yousef Kara completed his military service in the Israel Defence Forces in 1958 and started his working life in the Israel Prison Service. His career in Histadrut began in 1965, and he rose rapidly through the ranks. In 1974 he enrolled at Haifa University where he took up studies in Political Science and the history of the Middle East, at the same time serving as a secretary of the Israeli Organization of Druze Academics. In this position he helped Druze citizens to gain access to academic institutions and pursue their studies. This experience led to his appointment as Chair of the Histadrut Department for the Development of the Arab and Druze Village. He became a member of the Executive Board of the Histadrut in 1986, where he served until 1994. His involvement with the ILO began in 1990, when he attended the International Labour Conference for the first time as a representative of the Histadrut; in 1992 he was elected as a member of the Governing Body. He served regularly on the Governing Body until 2002, and was present at the 104th Session of the Conference in June 2015. He became a member of the Board of the International Training Centre of the ILO, Turin, and organized joint events between the Histadrut, the ILO and the Friedrich Ebert Foundation focusing on equality, workers' rights and international labour relations.

7. Yousef Kara's life was dedicated to the labour movement and he was, to say the least, a fervent proponent of tripartism. He was ruled by a desire for social justice and the defence of workers' rights. His lifelong support of minorities was not limited to the Druze community: he was sensitive to the problems of all minorities throughout the world and was always ready to stand up for them, speaking on their behalf in many international forums. Mr Kara was a man of considerable energy and dedication, whose approach to solving problems was in the strong ILO tradition of dialogue and consensus. His devotion to the values of the Organization was second to none, and he will be sorely missed both for this, and for the personal qualities he brought to his work to promote social justice. He is survived by his wife, five children, ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

8. The Governing Body invites the Director-General to convey its condolences to the Chairperson of the Histadrut and to the family of Mr Yousef Kara.

Mr Democrito Mendoza

9. The Director-General announces with deep regret the death, on 12 January 2016, of Mr Democrito Mendoza. Mr Mendoza, a distinguished labour leader in his country, the Philippines, was a Worker representative on the Governing Body from 1975 to 1996 and Worker delegate to the International Labour Conference from 1961 to 2005.

10. Democrito Mendoza was enrolled in the armed forces during the Second World War and through to his discharge in the early 1950s. He received the US Army's Americal Division Gold Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action against enemy forces in Cebu during the Philippine Liberation Campaign from 26 March to 19 April 1945, as well as other medals and decorations as an officer of the US Army Forces in the Far East from 1941 to 1946. He began his career in the labour movement as a dock worker in Cebu in 1953 and was among the founders of the pioneering Associated Labor Union (ALU) in 1954, an organization that did much to champion the rights, interests and welfare of formal and informal sector workers and their families. In 1975 he co-founded, with Ernesto Herrera, the Trade Union Congress of the Philippines (TUCP), the country's largest national labour organization, currently affiliated to the International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC).

11. Mr Mendoza represented Filipino workers at the International Labour Conference and on the Governing Body. He was a member of the Board of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions from 1975 to 1983 and of the Board of the International Training Centre of the ILO, from 1968 to 1996. He was tireless in his efforts to promote technical and vocational training and labour education for workers, and to advance the cause of social justice through peaceful means. At the International Labour Conference he constantly advocated the cause of workers, stressing their inalienable right to freedom of association, economic security, human dignity and equal opportunity. He was unfailing in his support for, and faith in, the ILO.

12. Democrito Mendoza was remembered by the Blas F. Ople Policy Center, Philippines, in the following terms: "As one of the pioneers in the trade union movement, Atty. Mendoza blazed a trail in union organizing and tripartite initiatives that will always be remembered. He leaves a giant void in the international and local trade union movements." He is survived by his wife, former Social Security System Commissioner Marianita, and his 14 children.

- 13. *The Governing Body invites the Director-General to convey its condolences to the Associated Labor Union of the Philippines, to the Trade Union Congress of the Philippines and to the family of Mr Democrito Mendoza.

22. It is recalled that the 1997 Constitutional Amendment, which enables the Organization to abrogate obsolete Conventions, adds a new paragraph 9 to article 19 of the Constitution to read: “Acting on a proposal of the Governing Body, the Conference may, by a majority of two-thirds of the votes cast by the delegates present, abrogate any Convention adopted in accordance with the provisions of this article if it appears that the Convention has lost its purpose or that it no longer makes a useful contribution to attaining the objectives of the Organisation.”

IV. Internal administration

23. Article 4.2(d) of the Staff Regulations states:

Vacancies in the Director and Principal Officer category shall be filled by the Director-General by transfer in the same grade, promotion or appointment. Such promotions or appointments, other than to vacancies in technical cooperation projects, shall be reported to the Governing Body with a short statement of the qualifications of the persons so promoted or appointed.

24. The following appointments and promotions are accordingly reported to the Governing Body:

Ms Beate Andrees (Germany)

Appointed Chief of the ILO Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work Branch (FUNDAMENTALS), at the D1 level, with effect from 15 August 2015.

Ms Andrees joined the ILO in 2003 to support technical cooperation projects dealing with migration and human trafficking, and to represent the ILO in various international forums. In 2012, she was appointed Head of the Special Action Program to Combat Forced Labour (SAP-FL), and as such she gained extensive experience in policy development, management and technical cooperation. Before joining the ILO, she worked as a freelancer for the German Parliament and as a lecturer at the Free University of Berlin, Germany.

Born in 1973, Ms Andrees is a graduate of the Free University of Berlin. She holds a degree in Political Science.

Ms Els Brackenier (Belgium)

Appointed Deputy Director of the Internal Services and Administration Department (INTSERV), at the D1 level, with effect from 1 April 2016.

Ms Brackenier began her professional career in the private sector and worked for 13 years as project manager for the delivery of technical building systems and data centre solutions. In 2006 she joined the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) in the NATO headquarters project office. Subsequently, she held the post of Head of Technical Services. Since 2010, she was Head of Infrastructure and Facilities Management at NATO headquarters in Brussels. In this capacity, she played a leading role in the development of the operations and maintenance strategy for headquarters.

She has a wide range of skills and experience in facilities management, contract management, leadership, project management and change management.

Born in 1970, Ms Brackenier holds a master's degree in Industrial Science as well as certificates in facilities management and disaster management.

Mr Vinicius Carvalho Pinheiro (Brazil)

Appointed Director of the ILO Office for the United Nations in New York and Special Representative to the United Nations, with effect from 1 February 2016. Promotion to D1 was reported to the Governing Body in November 2012.

Mr Lawrence Jeffrey Johnson (United States)

Appointed Chief of the World of Work Mega Trends, Research Department (RESEARCH), at the D1 level, with effect from 15 October 2015.

Prior to this appointment, Mr Johnson was Director of the ILO Country Office for the Philippines, providing technical support which fed into the Philippine Development Plan and the Philippine Labor and Employment Plan, focusing on decent work. From 1998 to 2010, he held the post of Chief of the ILO Employment Trends Team in Geneva. The team was responsible for delivering the ILO's flagship reports, which included the Global Employment Trends, Key Indicators of the Labour Market, the World Employment Report and specialized reports on vulnerable groups such as women and youth.

Mr Johnson was a principal adviser on issues relating to labour market analysis and policy support to member States in Africa, Central America, the Caribbean, Asia, Europe, the Middle East and in OECD countries. He also served on a number of international advisory panels – the United Nations International Expert and Advisory Group for the Millennium Development Goals, the United Nations Inter-Agency Network on Youth Development Indicators Task Force, and the World Bank–ILO Jobs Watch Initiative.

Born in 1964, Mr Johnson holds advanced degrees with honours in Economics with a focus on Labour and Econometrics.

Mr David Lamotte (Australia)

Appointed Deputy Director of the ILO Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific in Bangkok (RO–Asia and the Pacific), at the D1 level, with effect from 15 December 2015.

Mr Lamotte joined the ILO in 2001. He has wide-ranging experience, having served in both technical specialist and management roles in a number of ILO field assignments and at headquarters. His area of technical expertise is in enterprise and employment promotion. He has also been Officer-in-Charge of the Job Creation and Enterprise Development Department (EMP/ENTERPRISE). In 2011, he was appointed as ILO Country Director covering the Pacific Island Countries in Suva. More recently, he served as the Special Adviser to the Regional Director in Bangkok. Mr Lamotte has extensive experience in the Asia and the Pacific region and of country-level operations, including strategic planning, development cooperation and programme management.

Born in 1954, Mr Lamotte holds degrees in Science and Education and a master's degree in Management.

Mr Peter Poschen (Germany)

Appointed Director of the ILO Country Office for Brazil (CO–Brasilia), with effect from 1 December 2015. Promotion to D2 was reported to the Governing Body in March 2014.

Mr Philippe Vanhuynegem (Belgium)

Appointed Director of the ILO Decent Work Team and Country Office for the Andean Countries (DWT/CO–Lima), at the D1 level, with effect from 1 January 2016.

Mr Philippe Vanhuynegem has some 20 years' experience working for the ILO, having joined the Organization in 1997. He started his ILO career in Côte d'Ivoire, and then moved to the Lima subregional office, as junior professional officer on social protection. He worked for almost seven years at ILO headquarters, Geneva, for several large technical cooperation programmes on social exclusion, social protection and local development. In 2008, he managed a regional programme on cooperative businesses in East and Southern Africa (based in Dar es Salaam, United Republic of Tanzania). Until his recent appointment and since 2011, he was the Senior Enterprise Specialist for the Andean countries, based in Lima.

Before joining the ILO, Philippe Vanhuynegem worked for a consultancy firm in banking and telecommunications for the private sector in Europe. He started his career as research fellow at the Research Centre for Applied Economics of the Université Libre de Bruxelles (DULBEA) and published several studies on social protection, cooperative and other labour-related issues.

Born in 1968, Mr Vanhuynegem holds a master's degree (MSc) in Economics and a Diploma of Higher Studies (DEA) in Econometrics.

Mr Victor Van Vuuren (South Africa)

Appointed Director of the Enterprises Department (ENTERPRISES), with effect from 1 February 2016. Promotion to D1 was reported to the Governing Body in March 2009.
