

Committee on the Application of Standards

Date: 13 May 2022

Governments concerned are invited to submit written information on serious failure to report by 16 May 2022.

▶ Information on cases of serious failure to respect reporting and other standards-related obligations supplied by governments

Hungary

Serious failure to submit instruments adopted by the Conference to the competent authorities

The Government has provided the following written information.

The paragraphs below contain details relating to the presentation of Conventions and Recommendations adopted by the International Labour Conference between 2010 and 2019:

- The examination of the ratifiability of the Domestic Workers Convention (No. 189) and the related Recommendation (No. 201), 2011 was analysed in detail by the national ILO Council. At present, ILO Convention No. 189 is not included in the list of Conventions proposed for ratification by the national ILO Council, but this does not mean that Hungary is against the ratification.
- The HIV and AIDS Recommendation, 2010 (No. 200), adopted at the 99th Session of the International Labour Conference, and the Social Protection Floors Recommendation, 2012 (No. 202), adopted at the 101st Session of the International Labour Conference, were jointly presented to Parliament in September 2014.
- A government submission on the presentation to Parliament of the 2014 Protocol to the Forced Labour Convention, 1930, and the Forced Labour (supplementary measures) Recommendation (No. 203), adopted at the 103rd Session of the Conference of the International Labour Organization, was made in January 2016.
- The report on the implementation of ILO Convention No. 29 and the above-mentioned submission were debated in Parliament.
- The Transition from the Informal to the Formal Economy Recommendation, 2015 (No. 204) and the Employment and Decent Work for Peace and Resilience Recommendation, 2017 have been discussed by the Government with the social partners in the NILO Council meetings.

- The presentation of the Violence and Harassment Convention (No. 190) and Recommendation (No. 206), 2019 could not be presented due to the ongoing EU decision-making process. The European Commission presented a proposal for a Council Decision in January 2020 to authorize the ratification of the Convention in the interest of the European Union. The Council negotiation process stalled at COREPER level in December 2020.