PART II – ADMINISTRATION

3. Registrar of Co-operative Societies

- (1) There shall be for the purposes of this Act a Registrar of Co-operative Societies who shall be a public officer.
- (2) The Registrar may delegate any of his functions under this Act to any other public officer appointed to assist him in the execution of his functions.
- (3) The Registrar and every public officer appointed to assist him in the execution of his functions shall take the oath set out in the First Schedule.

4. Appointment of inspector

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the Registrar may, subject to the approval of the supervising officer, appoint, for the purposes of an inquiry, as an inspector –
 - (a) an auditor;
 - (b) a person who has held the office of Registrar;
 - (c) a person who holds or has held the office of Co-operative Officer and has not less than 8 years of service in the grade; or
 - (d) a person who has knowledge of, and experience in, the subject matter under inquiry.
- (2) The Registrar shall, whilst appointing an inspector, take into consideration the complexity of the subject matter under inquiry.

PART III – FORMATION OF SOCIETIES

5. Membership of primary society

- (1) A body of persons may be registered as a primary society where it consists of –
 - (a) at least 5 individuals; or

(b) a société and a body corporate other than a société.

(2) A body corporate incorporated or registered in Mauritius or elsewhere may be admitted as a member of a primary society if it undertakes to bring in the society know-how and technology which may contribute to the growth of the society.

(3) A non-citizen or a body corporate not incorporated or registered in Mauritius shall not be admitted as a member of a primary society unless the person or body corporate has been authorised to do so under the Non-Citizens (Property Restriction) Act.

(4) The rules of a primary society may provide for the maximum number of members in the society.

(5) Except in the case of a school society or a credit union, no individual shall become a member of a society unless he has attained the age of 18.

(6) (a) Where a society refuses to admit a person as a member, it shall, within 14 days, give to that person written notice of its refusal and the ground of refusal.

(b) Where the ground of refusal is not justified, the Registrar may give directions to any person as may be appropriate.

6. Membership of secondary society

(1) No society, other than a primary society, shall be a member of a secondary society.

(2) A secondary society shall comprise at least 5 primary societies.

7. Membership of tertiary society

(1) There shall be only one tertiary society which shall be the apex body and represent the interests of the co-operative movement nationally and internationally.

(2) No society, other than a secondary society, shall be a member of the tertiary society.

(3) The tertiary society shall comprise at least 5 secondary societies.

(4) Subject to the approval of the supervising officer, the Registrar may register a tertiary society.

8. Minimum share capital

(1) The minimum issued and paid up share capital of a society shall, at the time of registration, be not less than –

- (a) 5,000 rupees divided into ordinary shares of a denomination of 10 rupees for a primary society;
- (b) 10,000 rupees divided into ordinary shares of a denomination of 10 rupees for a secondary society; and
- (c) 25,000 rupees divided into ordinary shares of a denomination of 10 rupees for the tertiary society.

(2) A society shall, at all times, maintain the minimum issued and paid up capital specified in subsection (1) and it may issue –

- (a) non-redeemable preference shares;
- (b) redeemable preference shares of a denomination of 10 rupees.

(3) Where non-redeemable preference shares are issued –

- (a) the rights attached to those shares in terms of dividends payable by the society;
- (b) the ranking of those shares for the purposes of dividends;
- (c) the cumulating or non-cumulating of dividends in arrears; and
- (d) the periodicity and time for payment for dividends, shall be specified in the rules.

(4) Where redeemable preference shares are issued –

- (a) the conditions that make the shares redeemable;
- (b) the rights subject to which dividends are payable in respect of those shares;
- (c) the ranking of those shares for the purposes of dividends;
- (d) the cumulating or non-cumulating of dividends in arrears; and
- (e) the periodicity and time for payment for dividends, shall be specified in the rules.

(5) Where a society issues redeemable or non-redeemable preference shares, the ranking of those shares for liquidation purposes shall be in the order of priority specified in section 100.

9. Liability of society

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a society may be registered with limited or unlimited liability.

(2) Where Government has contributed to the share capital of a society, the liability of Government shall be limited to the amount of the shares held by it.

(3) Where a society is registered with limited liability, the liability of the members shall be limited to –

- (a) the amount unpaid on the shares held by them; and
- (b) such other amount as they may undertake under its rules to contribute to the assets of the society if it is wound up.

(4) Every society with limited liability shall have the word “Limited” or the abbreviation “Ltd” as the last word of its name.

10. Proposed activities and purposes

Every proposed society shall, in its rules, specify in clear and concise terms –

- (a) the activities which the society proposes to carry on; and
- (b) the purposes which the society proposes to achieve on registration.

11. Rules of society

The rules of every society shall –

- (a) include provisions relating to the matters specified in the Second Schedule; and
- (b) be printed, divided into numbered paragraphs, signed and dated by at least 3 members.

12. Registered office and hours of business

(1) Every society shall have a registered office to which any communication addressed to it shall be sent.

(2) A society shall –

- (a) submit to the Registrar the place at which, and the hours during which, the business of the society is carried out; and

(b) post up at its registered office a notice indicating the name of the society and the hours of business.

(3) The rules of the society shall set out the procedure for changing the hours or the place of business.

13. Name of society

(1) No society shall be registered under a name which –

- (a) is identical with that of an existing society or a statutory corporation;
- (b) so nearly resembles the name of an existing society or a statutory corporation as to be likely to mislead; or
- (c) is, in the opinion of the Registrar, undesirable or misleading.

(2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a society should not have been registered under a name, he may cancel its registration unless the society changes its name to a name which may be registered, within 30 days from the date on which the Registrar requests it to do so.

(3) Except with the approval of the Minister, no society shall be registered under a name which includes –

- (a) the word “Municipal” or “Chartered”, or any other word which, in the opinion of the Minister, suggests, or is likely to suggest, connection with a local authority in Mauritius or elsewhere;
- (b) the word “company” or “association”; or (c) the words “Chamber of Commerce”.

(4) Every society shall, unless the Minister otherwise determines, have the word “Co-operative” as part of its name.

(5) No person, other than a society shall, without the written approval of the Minister, trade or carry on business under any name or title of which the word “co-operative”, or its abbreviation or equivalent in any other language, forms part.

PART IV – REGISTRATION OF SOCIETY

14. Application for registration

(1) An application for the registration of a society shall be made to the Registrar in such form and manner as he may determine and shall be accompanied by –

- (a) 3 copies of the draft rules of the proposed society;
- (b) The application fee specified in the Third Schedule.

(2) The receipt issued to the applicant on payment of the application fee shall be an acknowledgement specifying the date on which the application was received.

15. Objects of society

The object of a society shall be, inter alia, to –

- (a) promote the economic and social betterment of its members; and
- (b) facilitate the operations of its members.

16. Processing of application

(1) The Registrar –

- (a) may grant or refuse an application for registration; and
- (b) shall, subject to subsection (3), within 3 days of the receipt of an application, communicate his decision in writing to the applicant.

(2) Where the applicant does not receive a reply from the Registrar within 3 days, he may apply to the supervising officer for an order directing the Registrar to make a reply.

(3) Where, in order to determine an application, the Registrar requests the applicant to furnish further information, the period of 3 days referred to in subsection (1) shall start from the day the last document is submitted.

(4) Where the Registrar refuses an application, he shall state in clear terms the reason for his decision.

(5) Any applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar to refuse his application may, within 21 days of receipt of the decision, appeal to the supervising officer.

17. Certificate of registration

- (1) Where the Registrar grants an application, he shall issue a certificate of registration in such form as he may determine.
- (2) The certificate shall state –
 - (a) that the society is registered;
 - (b) the date of registration of the society; and
 - (c) whether the society is a primary, secondary or tertiary society.

18. Effect of registration

- (1) No society shall commence business until it has obtained a certificate of registration.
- (2) From the date of issue of the certificate of registration, the society shall –
 - (a) be a body corporate by the name set out in the application form; and
 - (b) be capable of exercising all the functions of a society.
- (3) The promoters of a society shall be considered to have agreed to become members of the society and, on its registration, their names shall be entered in the members' register.
- (4) A member shall be a shareholder if the share he holds in the society is an ordinary share, a preference share or a redeemable preference share.
- (5)
 - (a) Every society shall pay the annual fee specified in the Third Schedule.
 - (b) No society shall carry out any operation unless it pays the annual fee.
 - (c) The annual fee shall be payable within 2 months from the end of a financial year.
 - (d) Where a society fails to pay the annual fee within the period specified in paragraph (c), it shall, together with the annual fee, be liable to the surcharge specified in the Third Schedule.
 - (e) Where a society fails to pay the annual fee within 4 months from the end of a financial year, the Registrar may cancel its registration.

19. Register of societies

(1) The Registrar shall keep a register of societies in such form as he may determine.

(2) The register shall be open to inspection subject to such conditions as the Registrar may determine.

20. Effect of rules

(1) Where a society is registered, the rules shall, subject to this Act, have the effect of a contract between the society and its members and among the members themselves, whereby they agree to act in all respects according to the rules.

(2) Any money payable by a member to the society under the rules shall be a debt due by him to the society.

(3) The Registrar may issue a copy of the rules of a society to a member on payment of the fee specified in the Third Schedule.

21. Amendment of rules and change of name

(1) The rules of a society may be amended by a resolution passed by its members at a general meeting.

(2) A society shall, not later than one month before a general meeting referred to in subsection (1), forward to the Registrar a copy of the proposed resolution.

(3) Any change of name of a society shall be published in the Gazette and 2 daily newspapers.

22. Obligations in relation to resolution

(1) Where the rules of a society are amended, the society shall, within 7 days, forward a copy of the resolution to the Registrar.

(2) The Registrar shall, within 14 days from the receipt of the amended rules referred to in subsection (1), register the amendment where he is satisfied that the requirements of this Act have been complied with.

(3) Where the Registrar registers the amendment, he shall issue to the society a certificate to that effect.

(4) A resolution shall have no effect unless it is registered by the Registrar.

(5) Where the Registrar refuses to register a resolution, he shall, within 14 days from the receipt of the copy of the resolution, give notice, in writing, of the refusal and of the ground for such refusal to the society.

(6) A society aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar to refuse to register a resolution may, within 21 days from the decision, appeal to the Tribunal.

(7) Where a resolution has been registered, the society shall issue to every member a copy of that part of the rules which has been amended.

PART V – POWERS, PRIVILEGES AND DUTIES OF SOCIETY

23. Power to sue

A society may, pursuant to its powers, initiate legal action against the Secretary, an internal controller, the auditor, an employee, a member, director, creditor, debtor, past Secretary, past member, past director, past internal controller, past auditor, past employee, past creditor or past debtor where any such person has committed an act which is detrimental to the interests of the society.

24. Register of members

(1) Every society shall keep and maintain up to date a register of members and a register of shares which shall be prima facie evidence of –

- (a) the date on which the name of a person was entered in the register as a member;
- (b) the date on which a person ceased to be a member;
- (c) the name of a nominee; and
- (d) the number of shares by category held by each member.

(2) Every member shall, on payment of the amount due by him in respect of the shares, be issued with a share certificate.

25. Books and documents to be kept

(1) Every society shall, at all times, keep at its registered office in an updated form –

- (a) Its registration certificate;
- (b) a copy of this Act;
- (c) a copy of the regulations made under this Act;
- (d) a copy of its rules;
- (e) a copy of its approved financial statements and audit reports over the immediately preceding 5 years;
- (f) a register showing any declaration of interest by any director;
- (g) its books of accounts; and
- (h) minutes of proceedings of general meetings.

(2) The registers, books and documents referred to in section 24 and this section shall be open for inspection free of charge and at all reasonable times by –

- (a) The supervising officer or his representative;
- (b) its members;
- (c) the Registrar and his officers; and
- (d) the Principal Co-operative Auditor and his officers.

(3) Every society which fails to comply with section 24 and this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees.

26. Proof of entries in books of societies

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, a copy of an entry in any book or document of a society referred to in section 25(1)(e), (f), (g) or (h) shall be prima facie evidence of the entry and of the matter, transaction or account recorded where –

- (a) the book was, at the time the entry was made, one of the ordinary books of the society;
- (b) the entry was made in the usual course of the society's business;
- (c) the book is in the custody of the society; and
- (d) the copy of the entry has been compared with, and is a correct copy of, the original entry.

(2) A copy of an entry in a book or document of a society shall be –

- (a) Certified as a true copy of the entry; and
- (b) accompanied by a declaration that the book containing the entry is still in the custody of the society and the seal of the society shall be affixed on the copy of the entry.

(3) A certificate issued under subsection(2) shall be dated and signed by the President and Secretary of the society.

27. Acts of societies not invalidated

Any act of a society executed by any officer or employee of a society shall not be invalidated –

- (a) by reason of the existence of any defect in –
 - (i) the rules; or
 - (ii) the election or appointment of any officer or employee; or
- (b) on the ground that the officer or employee was disqualified for serving in that capacity.

28. Attachment, charge and set-off

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment –

- (a) the share or interest of a member shall not be liable to be charged, seized or attached by a creditor of the member under the order of a Court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the member; and
- (b) where a member is adjudged bankrupt, the Official Receiver shall have no claim on the share or interest of the member.

(2) A society shall have a charge which shall rank in priority –

- (a) on the shares and deposits of a member, past member or deceased member; and
- (b) on any dividend or bonus payable to a member, past member or estate of a deceased member in respect of a debt due to the society by the member, past member or estate of a deceased member.

(3) A society may set off any sum payable to a member, past member or estate of a deceased member against the payment of any debt due to the society by the member, past member or deceased member.

(4) No bank shall have a charge on any sum invested in the bank –

(a) by the society where the bank is not the sole creditor of the society; or

(b) by a society from any provident fund in which the society is a member.

29. Priority of claims

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, a society shall, in respect of a loan or advance made by the society to a member, or in respect of any other sum due by a member or an employee to the society, have a privilege –

(a) on the crops or other agricultural produce of that member and on the proceeds from the sale of such produce;

(b) on any –

(i) livestock;

(ii) fish and marine products;

(iii) fodder;

(iv) seed;

(v) fertilizer;

(vi) agricultural or industrial machinery;

(vii) raw materials; or

(viii) finished products,

supplied to that member, or purchased, produced or otherwise acquired by him with the loan or advance; and

(c) on his salary or wages or other allowances subject to the Employment Rights Act.

(2) The privilege referred to in subsection (1) shall rank immediately after the privilege of Government in respect of taxes or of a landlord in respect of rent.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the claim of a bona fide purchaser or transferee without notice of the claim of the society.

(4) A member may execute an agreement in favour of a society requesting his employer to deduct such amount as he may specify which shall not exceed the amount specified in the Employment Rights Act.

(5) Where an employer fails to comply with a request under subsection (4) –

(a) the society may recover the amount due from the employer as a debt due by him to the society; and

(b) he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 20,000 rupees.

(6) A society may, with the approval of the Registrar, cede the priority of claim that it has by virtue of this section to any other person.

30. Privilege on bankruptcy of members

Notwithstanding any other enactment but subject to section 29(6), where a member is adjudged bankrupt, the claim of a society in respect of any amount due to it by the member shall be a privileged claim and shall rank immediately after any claim by a landlord in respect of rent or an employee in respect of wages.

31. Fiscal exemptions of societies and members

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, but subject to subsection (2) –

(a) no stamp duty shall be levied on an instrument executed by –

(i) a society; or

(ii) a member, in relation to business transacted with the society in accordance with its rules; and

(b) no fee shall be payable by a society under any enactment relating to registration dues, transcription or inscription fees, except on a declaration, or deed of transfer of ownership of a motor vehicle or trailer.

(2) Subsection (1)(a)(i) shall not apply unless the society produces a certificate issued by the supervising officer showing that the society has –

(a) Held its annual general meeting within the time specified in section 41(1) or (5); and (b) paid any sum due to –

(i) the Fund;

(ii) the secondary or tertiary society, as the case may be, where it is a member of that society.

(3) A certificate issued under subsection(2) shall relate to the financial year preceding the date on which it is issued.

32. Transfer of shares or interest

(1) A member may transfer his share in the society where –

(a) the person to whom the share is transferred is eligible to be admitted as a member; and

(b) the transfer is effected in accordance with its rules.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other enactment, a society shall, on the death or insanity of a member, transfer the share or any interest of the member to his nominee.

(b) Where, on the death of a member, no person has been nominated under section 35, the share or interest of the deceased member shall accrue to his heirs.

(c) Where –

(i) Under its rules, the nominee or heir is not qualified for membership in the society; or

(ii) the nominee or heir does not intend to apply for membership,

 - (b) Where the President has vacated his office prior to the period of 3 years or ceased to hold office following the period of 3 years referred to in paragraph (a), he shall not be qualified to be appointed to an office in the society at any time during a period of 12 months preceding the next annual general meeting of the society.
- (4) Where the Treasurer or Secretary is not a director of the Board, the Treasurer or Secretary may attend a meeting of the Board, but he shall not have a right to vote.

47. The Board

- (1) Subject to this Act and the rules, a society shall be managed by a Board.
- (2) The Board shall comprise not less than 3 nor more than 9 directors elected in accordance with the rules.
- (3) No alteration in the rules shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made.
- (4) The Board shall not sell, lease or dispose of any immovable property of the society unless –
 - (a) the sale, lease or disposal is expressly set out on the agenda of a general meeting;
 - (b) the members at the general meeting have approved the sale, lease or disposal;
 - (c) the Registrar is informed, in writing, at least 30 days before the meeting at which such a sale, lease or disposal of the immovable property of the society is to be approved;
 - (d) the immovable property has been evaluated by a qualified valuer appointed by the society within the period of 6 months preceding the sale, lease or disposal of the property and the evaluation report is submitted to the society and the Registrar.
- (5) No payment effected or contract, dealing or transaction entered into by the society shall be invalidated where the party to whom the payment has been made or with whom the contract, dealing or transaction has been entered into, has acted in good faith.
- (6) For the purpose of subsection (5), a party shall be considered to have acted in bad faith where, at the time of any payment, contract, dealing or transaction, that party had knowledge of the fact that the society, the Board or the person with whom he was dealing was acting in breach of this Act or the rules.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), the Board may –
 - (a) appoint such subcommittees of its own directors as it may determine; and
 - (b) delegate to the subcommittee such powers and functions as it may determine.
- (8) No decision of a subcommittee shall be implemented unless the decision is ratified by the Board.

(9) Notwithstanding subsection (5), any payment made or contract, dealing or transaction entered into in breach of subsection (8) shall be null and void.

(10) (a) Subject to paragraph (c), where the Registrar is of the opinion that a Board –

(i) has persistently failed to perform, or is negligent in the performance of, its duties;

(ii) has committed, is committing or is about to commit an act which is prejudicial to the interests of the society or its members; or

(iii) is otherwise not functioning properly,

he may, subject to the approval of the supervising officer, by order in writing, remove the Board and appoint a person to manage the affairs of the society on such terms and conditions as he may determine.

(b) The Registrar may, before making an order under paragraph (a), take such steps as he may determine to safeguard the interests of the society.

(c) No order under paragraph (a) shall be made unless the Board is given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the making of the proposed order.

(d) Subject to the control and directions of the Registrar, a person appointed under paragraph (a) –

(i) shall have all the powers of the Board or any officer; and

(ii) may take such action as may be necessary in the interests of the society.

(e) The remuneration of a person appointed under paragraph (a) and the costs, if any, incurred in the management of the society, shall be paid out of the funds of the society.

48. Qualifications of directors

(1) No person shall be eligible to serve as a director or remain a director if he –

(a) is under the age of 18;

(b) is involved, directly or indirectly, in any activity which is in conflict with, or is likely to be prejudicial to, the activities of the society;

- (g) has previously, as director of a society, misused, mismanaged or misappropriated its funds; or
- (h) is in arrears with the repayment of a loan from, or any amount due to, a society.

(2) Where a director has any interest, direct or indirect, in any matter before the Board, he shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, disclose to the Board the nature of his interest, and shall not take any part in the deliberation of the Board relating to that matter.

(3) Subsection (1)(a) shall not apply in relation to a school society.

49. Election of directors

(1) At the annual general meeting of the society, the directors shall be elected according to the rules.

(2) An outgoing director or Secretary shall remit to a newly elected Board any book, document or any property of the society which was remitted to, or kept by, him in his capacity as director or Secretary.

(3) A person who fails to comply with subsection (2) shall commit an offence and be liable to a fine not exceeding 200,000 rupees.

50. Government nominees as directors

(1) Where Government has –

- (a) guaranteed the repayment of debentures issued by, or loans, advances or overdrafts made to, a society; or
- (b) given financial assistance in any other form to a society,

the Minister may, in addition to the elected directors, appoint not more than 5 persons having wide experience in the field of co-operatives to sit on the Board as directors.

(2) Any member appointed under subsection (1) shall sit on the Board on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine and shall be eligible for reappointment.

51. Non-member as director

(1) Subject to the rules, a person not being a member may be appointed as director but shall not have the right to vote.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), the number of persons who are not members and who may be appointed as directors shall not exceed one third of the total number of directors or such lower proportion as may be provided in the rules.

52. Duties of directors

(1) It shall be the duty of every director –

- (a) to exercise his powers in accordance with this Act and within the limits and subject to the conditions and restrictions imposed by the rules;
- (b) to obtain the authorisation of the general meeting before doing any act or entering into any transaction for which the authorisation of a general meeting is required by this Act or by the rules;
- (c) to exercise his powers honestly, in good faith, in the best interests of the society and for the respective purpose for which such powers are explicitly or implicitly conferred;
- (d) to exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances;
- (e) to account to the society for any monetary gain, or the value of any other gain or advantage obtained by him, in connection with the exercise of his powers;
- (f) not to make use of, in a personal capacity, either directly or indirectly, or divulge, any confidential information received by him on behalf of the society as director;
- (g) not to compete or be in conflicts with the society or become a director or officer of any competitor of the society;
- (h) where he has any interest in any contract or transaction with the society, to declare his interest to the next meeting of directors of the society, and in such declaration to state the nature and extent of his interest and the effect or probable effect of his interest on the contract or transaction;

- (i) not to use any assets of the society for any unlawful purpose;
- (j) not to do, or knowingly allow to be done, any thing by which the assets of the society may be damaged or lost otherwise than in the course of carrying out its business;
- (k) to cause to keep proper accounting records and make such records available for audit and inspection; and
- (l) to disclose any family link he may have with any employee or member of the society.

(2) Any director who fails to comply with subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees.

(3) Every director shall be jointly and severally liable for any loss sustained by the society through his failure to exercise prudence and diligence or through any act which is contrary to this Act or the rules of the society.

(4) Where a director commits a breach of any duty under this Act, the director and every person who knowingly participated in the breach shall be liable to compensate the society for any loss it suffers as a result of the breach.

53. Removal of directors

- (1) A director shall cease to hold office if –
 - (a) he fails, or ceases, to satisfy the criteria specified in section 48 or in the rules during his term of office;
 - (b) he fails to attend 3 consecutive meetings of the Board without reasonable cause;
 - (c) he resigns by notice in writing;
 - (d) he is removed from office in accordance with subsection (2) or section 47(10); or
 - (e) in case of a secondary or tertiary society –
 - (i) the primary or secondary society which he represents, makes a request in writing for his removal;

- (ii) the primary or secondary society which he represents contravenes this Act or is dormant, in liquidation or wound up; or
- (iii) he ceases to be a member of the primary or secondary society which he represents.

(2) A director may be removed from office by a resolution of a general meeting where at least 7 days' prior notice is issued to him of the intended resolution.

(3) Where a vacancy on the Board arises as a result of the removal of a director under subsection (2) or the death, resignation or insanity of a director, and the number of directors falls below the minimum prescribed by this Act, the Board shall fill the vacancy, pending the next general meeting, by co-opting from the members.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the number of members co-opted shall not exceed 2 or one quarter of the Board, whichever is the lower.

(5) Where more than 2 directors or more than one quarter of the total number of directors, whichever is the lesser, cease to be directors of the society under subsection (1), the Board shall, within 30 days, initiate procedures for convening a general meeting for the purpose of electing new directors to fill the vacancies.

54. Meetings of directors

(1) A Board shall meet as often as may be necessary and at least once every month.

(2) The meeting shall be convened –

(a) by the President of the society or, in his absence, by any director elected to act as President;

(b) at the request of 2 directors or one third of the total number of directors of the society, whichever is the higher; or

(c) by the Registrar.

(3) (a) A decision of the Board shall not be valid unless a quorum is present.

(b) A majority of the number of directors of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b), where the Board is convened by the Registrar, the directors present at such meeting shall constitute a quorum.

(4) Every decision shall be taken by a majority of votes.

(5) In case of equality of votes, the President shall have a casting vote.

(6) The proceedings at all Board meetings shall be recorded in minutes which shall, subject to subsection (7), be signed by the President and Secretary.

(7) The rules may provide for all directors present at the meeting to sign the minutes.

(8) The minutes shall be approved at the next Board meeting.

(9) The Secretary shall, within 7 days from the meeting, forward a copy of the minutes, certified by the President and Secretary, to the Registrar.

55. Internal controller

(1) Every society shall appoint at least one internal controller who shall not be a director of the society.

(2) The internal controller shall be appointed by the society at a general meeting on such terms and conditions as the general meeting may determine.

(3) Where the Internal Controller has vacated or is removed from office prior to a general meeting, the Board may appoint an Internal Controller on such terms and conditions as it may determine and such decision shall be ratified at the next general meeting.

(4) (a) Every internal controller shall ensure that the affairs of the society are conducted in accordance with this Act, other relevant enactments and the rules of the society and, in particular, shall –

- (i) ensure that all the activities follow approved policies and established procedures;
- (ii) ensure that all the books of the society are, at all times, up to date;
- (iii) carry out inspections of the money, stocks, books and other assets of the society;
- (iv) ascertain the authority and validity of all expenditure, including loans and advances;
- (v) examine the accounts of the society at regular intervals and ensure that all transactions of the society are properly recorded in the respective books, accounts and any other documents where required; and

(vi) not disclose to any unauthorised person any matter which comes to his knowledge in the course of his functions.

(b) Any internal controller who contravenes paragraph (a)(vi) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 25,000 rupees.

(5) An internal controller shall, in the exercise of his functions, have access to all books, accounts and documents of the society and shall have the power to call upon any person to produce any such information or such books, accounts and documents as he may require.

(6) (a) An internal controller shall, within 15 days from the end of each quarter, make a report of his findings and send a copy of the report to the Registrar and the Board.

(b) Where the internal controller fails to submit his quarterly report within the delay specified in paragraph (a), the Registrar may require that the report be submitted within such time as he may determine.

(c) Where an internal controller fails to submit his report within the time fixed by the Registrar, the Registrar may appoint an inspector at the expense of the society to inquire into its affairs.

(d) The inspector appointed under paragraph (6) shall submit his report within 30 days of his appointment or such time as the Registrar may determine.

(e) The internal controller shall, at least 7 days before the next annual general meeting, make an annual report which shall be accessible at the seat of the society.

56. Revocation of internal controller

(1) After taking cognizance of the report of the inspector under section 55(5)(d), the Registrar may –

- (a) revoke the internal controller; and
- (b) appoint a new internal controller at the expense of the society.

(2) (a) The internal controller referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall be appointed for a maximum period of 6 months.

(b) The Registrar shall cause a general meeting to be held, within the period specified in paragraph (a), for the purpose of appointing a new internal controller in accordance with section 55(2).

57. Anti-money laundering and combating financing of terrorism

(1) Every internal controller or auditor of a society shall –

- (a) as soon as practicable but not later than 15 working days from the day on which he becomes aware of a transaction which he has reason to believe may be a suspicious transaction, make a report to the FIU and to the Registrar of such transaction; and
- (b) provide to the FIU and to the Registrar such information as they may require regarding the transaction.

(2) The Registrar shall ensure that –

- (a) every internal controller and auditor complies with subsection (1); and
- (b) every society complies with the relevant guidelines issued by the FIU;

(3) The Bank of Mauritius or the Financial Services Commission may provide the Registrar such technical support and assistance, as he may require, in the licensing, regulating and supervision of societies.

(4) In this subsection –

“FIU” has the same meaning as in the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act;

“suspicious transaction” has the same meaning as in the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act.

(5) Any internal controller or auditor who fails to comply with subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees.

58. Notification to Registrar

(1) Every society shall inform the Registrar in writing of –

(a) the names, occupations, addresses and academic and professional qualifications and experience of –

(i) its directors within 14 days of their election;

(ii) an internal controller within 14 days of his appointment; and

(b) any changes in the composition of its Board or the internal controller within 14 days of the change.

(2) Any society which fails to comply with subsection (1) shall commit an offence and, without prejudice to section 44 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Act, the Secretary shall commit the like offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5,000 rupees.

59. Contracting out management of society

(1) A society may contract out the management of its business on such terms and conditions as it may determine to a management organisation where a resolution to that effect is passed at a general meeting of the society.

(2) The Registrar shall be informed of the resolution and a copy of the contract shall, within 7 days from the resolution, be submitted to the Registrar.

PART IX – PROPERTY AND FUNDS OF SOCIETY

60. Funds of societies

The funds of a society shall consist of –

(a) such entrance fee as may be provided for in the rules;

(b) any payment made in respect of shares subscribed in accordance with this Act and the rules of the society;

(c) any undistributed net surplus required to be allocated to the Reserve Fund;

(d) any undistributed net surplus allocated to any fund established under the rules;

(e) grants, donations and other contributions from public or private donors;

(f) loans from members, other societies, banks and public or private financial institutions;

(g) deposits from members and other societies;

- (h) surplus in terms of patronage refund, the disbursement of which is deferred subject to such conditions as may be provided in the rules;
- (i) any other contribution by members to the capital of the society, pursuant to the rules; and
- (j) premiums arising on the issue of shares.

61. Shares

- (1) No share shall be issued at less than its par value.
- (2) Every share shall be registered and indivisible.
- (3) No share shall be transferred by a member unless the share has been fully paid up by him.
- (4) No person shall hold more than 30 per cent of the issued share capital of a society.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), a society shall, in its rules, fix the maximum number of shares, or a maximum percentage of the share capital of the society, that a member may hold.
- (6) Where all the members of a society are societies, the percentage of share capital that may be held by a member shall not be limited.
- (7) Where, for the purpose of a merger of 2 or more societies, shares are issued for consideration other than cash, the societies shall not merge unless the merger is approved at the general meetings of the societies involved with the merger.
- (8) Where shares are to be issued in consideration of any property other than cash, the shares shall not be issued unless –
 - (a) a proper valuation certificate is issued by a qualified valuer or such other person who may be qualified for that purpose; and
 - (b) the approval of the general meeting of the society to which the property has to be transferred is obtained.

62. Conditions for membership participation

Every society shall, in its rules, set out the conditions for the participation of its members in the capital of the society, including the minimum contribution that each member has to make in the form of –

- (a) a fixed minimum number of shares; or
- (b) a number of shares in proportion to the business done by the member with the society.

63. Reserve Fund

(1) Every society shall maintain a Reserve Fund into which shall be paid at least 5 per cent of its surplus.

(2) Where the Minister is satisfied that a society has accumulated adequate funds in its Reserve Fund, the Minister may, on an application made by the society, authorise the society to contribute a lesser percentage of its surplus to the Reserve Fund than the percentage referred to in subsection (1).

(3) Subject to subsection (1), a society may maintain special reserve funds into which shall be paid such part of its surplus as may be provided in the rules or as the general meeting may approve.

(4) No society shall pay any dividend out of its Reserve Fund.

(5) A society may, from its Reserve Fund, issue bonus shares to its members.

64. Order of distribution of net surplus

The surplus of a society shall be distributed in the following order of priority –

- (a) Reserve Fund;
- (b) dividend on preference share, both redeemable and nonredeemable;
- (c) special reserve funds;
- (d) bonus to employees;
- (e) bonus to a member in proportion to the business done by the member with the society; and
- (f) dividend on ordinary shares.

65. Payment of bonus and dividend

(1) No assets of a society, other than its surplus, shall be distributed by way of bonus or dividends, or otherwise, among its members.

(2) No society shall pay any bonus or dividend or distribute any part of any special reserve fund unless the financial statement has been certified by the Principal Co-operative Auditor or an auditor, as the case may be, and has been approved at the general meeting.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), no society shall pay any dividend on ordinary shares unless the payment has been approved at the general meeting.

66. Investment of assets

(1) A society may invest its assets in such manner as may be specified in its rules or decided by the general meeting.

(2) The Board shall, when investing the assets of the society, consider the liquidity and the security aspect of the investments.

(3) The rules shall specify the amount of the assets –

(a) which the Board may invest without the approval of the general meeting; and

(b) above which the Board shall have to obtain the approval of the general meeting before investing the assets.

(4) Where a report has been prepared by a Principal Co-operative Auditor, an inspector, an auditor or an internal controller, and, from the reports, the Registrar has reason to believe that the investment policy carried out by the Board is not in the interests of the members, the Registrar may direct the society to hold a general meeting within such time as the Registrar may specify for the purpose of considering the reports and if need be, reviewing the investment policy of the society.

(5) Where –

(a) a complaint, in writing, is made to the Registrar by –

(i) one fifth of the total number of members or 2 members, whichever is the higher; and

- (ii) the members referred to in subparagraph (i) hold not less than 20 per cent of the ordinary shares, or not less than 30 per cent of the preference shares, of the society;
- (b) the Registrar has reason to believe that the investment policy carried out by the Board is not in the interests of the members, he may take such action as specified in subsection (4).

67. Restrictions on borrowings and credit

- (1) The rules of a society shall make provision for the conditions under which the society may receive loans and deposits from its members and non-members.
- (2) No society shall contract a loan or receive a deposit except as specified in its rules.
- (3) No society shall grant a loan or allow any credit –
 - (a) to any person other than a member; and
 - (b) except as specified in its rules.

68. Seizure of property

- (1) The Registrar shall, where he has reasonable ground to believe that –
 - (a) any document relating to a society is likely to be suppressed, tampered with or destroyed; or
 - (b) the property of a society is likely to be misappropriated or destroyed,apply to the Magistrate of the district in which the society has its registered office for a search warrant.
- (2) The Magistrate may, on an application made under subsection(1), issue a warrant authorizing a police officer to –
 - (a) enter any premises where any document or property referred to in subsection (1) is to be found; and
 - (b) seize any such document or property and deliver it to the Registrar for safe custody.

PART X – ACCOUNTS, RECORDS AND AUDIT

69. Financial year

- (1) The financial year of a society shall be the period starting on 1 July and ending on 30 June in the next year.
- (2) The first financial year of a society shall start from the date of its registration and end on 30 June next following.

70. Keeping of accounts and records

(1) Every society shall keep proper books of accounts and other books, manually or electronically, for the purpose of recording all transactions relating to its undertakings, funds, activities and properties.

(2) A society shall –

- (a) ensure that all payments are authorised and correctly made and adequate control is maintained over its income, its expenditure, assets and liabilities;
- (b) keep all accounts and records in such manner that they truly reflect the financial situation of the society so that the Registrar, Principal Co-operative Auditor, internal controller or the auditor can, at all reasonable times, have access to them; and
- (c) ensure that all accounts in respect of a financial year are drawn up and audited in accordance with this Act, its rules and other relevant enactments.

(3) The Registrar may, where a society fails to keep records, registers and books in accordance with subsection (1), appoint such person as he may determine to keep the necessary books of accounts.

(4) The remuneration of the person appointed under subsection (3) and the costs, if any, incurred in the performance of the work shall be paid out of the funds of the society.

71. Bank accounts

(1) Subject to such directives as may be issued by the Registrar, a society shall maintain at least one bank account –

- (a) into which all monies received by it shall be paid; and

(b) out of which all payments required to be made by it shall be paid.

(2) The rules of a society shall state the amount that may be kept by it in the form of petty cash.

(3) The Registrar may, where, in his opinion, such measures are necessary to prevent loss or misuse of funds –

(a) certify to a bank the persons who are authorised to sign cheques or other documents on behalf of a society;

(b) freeze the account of a society in a bank; or

(c) give to any bank instructions regarding the operation of the account of a society.

72. Co-operative Audit Unit

(1) There shall, for the purpose of auditing co-operative societies, be a Co-operative Audit Unit within the Ministry which shall be headed by a Principal Co-operative Auditor who shall be accountable to the supervising officer.

(2) The Principal Co-operative Auditor may, subject to section 127(1), delegate any of his duties under this Act to any public officer of the Ministry, appointed to assist him, in the execution of his duties.

(3) The Principal Co-operative Auditor and all staff appointed to assist him in carrying out the auditing functions shall take the oath set out in the First Schedule.

73. Audit

(1) Subject to subsection (2), every society shall, at its first general meeting and at every subsequent annual general meeting, appoint the Principal Co-operative Auditor or an auditor through an ordinary resolution of its members to –

(a) Hold office from the conclusion of the meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting; and

(b) audit the financial statements of the society for the accounting period next after the meeting.

(2) (a) No society shall, where its annual revenue exceeds the prescribed amount, appoint the Principal Co-operative Auditor as auditor.

(b) Where a society appoints the Principal Co-operative Auditor as auditor, he shall not be remunerated by the society.

(3) Every society shall, within a period of 3 months after the closing of the financial year, submit to the Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor, as the case may be, the financial statements together with all relevant documents and such statistical returns as the Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor may require.

(4) The Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor shall, within 3 months from receipt of the financial statements together with all relevant documents, submit a report on the audit carried out to the President of the society and the Registrar.

(5) The Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor may, for the purpose of the examination or audit, require from any member of the Board, officer, the internal controller, employee or member, such information and explanations as may be necessary.

(6) The Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor shall, while auditing the accounts of a society, assess –

- (a) the financial situation of the society and the functioning of its decision making bodies; and
- (b) the degree to which procedures set out in the rules or in any other relevant documents of the society are being complied with.

(7) Where the Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor finds any shortcoming in the books or procedures of the society, he shall recommend such remedial actions and measures as he may determine.

(8) The Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor shall, within 15 days of the completion of the audit, submit a copy of his findings together with the audit report and the audited accounts of the society to the Board and to the Registrar.

(9) The findings of the Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor submitted under subsection (8) shall include –

- (a) a list of transactions and agreements, if any, between the society and its members or third parties not covered by the rules or not duly authorised or likely to cause damage to the society; and

- (b) an appraisal of the management performance and the working of the decision-making bodies of the society.
- (10) Where the Board decides not to implement any recommendation contained in the findings of the Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor, it shall so inform the Registrar in writing and give reasons for the non-implementation.
- (11) The audit report referred to in subsection(8) shall include a statement as to whether –
 - (a) the auditor had access to all accounts, books, records and relevant information required while carrying out the audit;
 - (b) in the opinion of the auditor, accounting records have been kept, and internal control systems have been maintained properly and have been audited in compliance with this Act and other relevant enactments; and
 - (c) the accounts prepared by the society give a true and fair view of the affairs of the society.
- (12) The audit report shall be submitted for consideration at the annual general meeting.

74. Persons not eligible to act as auditor

No person shall carry out the audit of a society, or prepare an audit report regarding a society, where he –

- (a) has been a director, manager or employee of the society during the current year and the immediately preceding year;
- (b) is a person who is a partner or in the employment of a director or an employee of the society;
- (c) is a person who is a receiver in respect of the property of the society;
- (d) is a person who is not ordinarily resident in Mauritius;
- (e) is a person who is indebted to the society in an amount exceeding 10,000 rupees unless the debt is in the ordinary course of business;
- (f) has been expelled as a member from the society; or

(g) has an interest in the society.

75. Liability of Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor

(1) The Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor, as the case may be, shall, in carrying out an audit –

- (a) exercise prudence and diligence and maintain the standards of the auditors' profession;
- (b) keep confidential all information on internal matters of the society, obtained during the exercise of his functions; and
- (c) be jointly and severally liable for any loss sustained or damage caused by –
 - (i) gross negligence in the performance of his duties;
 - (ii) failure to meet the standards of the profession; or
 - (iii) wilfully disclosing confidential information obtained during the audit to persons other than those authorised under this Act.

(2) Where the Principal Co-operative Auditor or auditor, or any person assisting him in audit work, uses information in respect of the internal matters of the society obtained during the audit for his personal advantage or for the advantage of third persons, he shall commit an offence.

PART XI – INQUIRY

76. Inquiry on a society

- (1) The Registrar may –
- (a) on the application of a creditor of the society or of not less than one tenth of the total number of members or 2 members, whichever is the higher holding at least –
 - (i) 10 per cent of the ordinary shares of a society; or
 - (ii) 30 per cent of the preference shares of a society, if any;
 - (b) on a resolution of the Board or of a general meeting;

- (c) where the internal controller fails to forward the quarterly report to the Registrar within 2 months from the end of the time allocated by the Registrar under section 55(6)(b); or
- (d) where he so determines,

appoint an inspector to inquire into the affairs of a society or such aspects of the affairs of a society as may be specified in the instrument of appointment and to make a report on his investigation, in such form and manner as the Registrar shall direct.

(2) Where an application is made under subsection (1)(a), the Registrar may, before appointing an inspector, require the applicant to provide –

- (a) the reason for the application; and
- (b) such security as the Registrar may determine to cover the cost of the inquiry.

(3) An inspector appointed under subsection (1) shall submit his findings within such period as the Registrar may specify in the instrument of appointment.

(4) Where, from a report of an inspector, it appears to the Registrar that proceedings in the interests of the members ought to be brought by the society –

- (a) for the recovery of any sum in respect of any fraud, misfeasance or other misconduct –
 - (i) in connection with the promotion or formation of that society; or
 - (ii) in the management of its affairs; or
- (b) for the recovery of any property of the society which has been misapplied or wrongly retained, he may bring proceedings for that purpose in the name of the society.

77. Investigation and remedies

(1) Where, in the course of an audit, inquiry or inspection or the winding up of a society, it is found that any officer or past officer of the society has –

- (a) made any payment contrary to this Act or the rules of the society;
- (b) caused any deficiency or loss by gross negligence or misconduct; or
- (c) misappropriated or fraudulently retained any property of the society, the Principal Co-operative Auditor, auditor or liquidator shall refer the matter to the Registrar who may, even in the absence of such a reference and on his own motion or on the application of an interested party, cause an investigation to be made into the conduct of that person.

(2) No investigation under subsection (1) shall be made except within –

(a) 10 years from the date on which the act occurred; or

(b) one year from the date on which the act comes to the notice of the Registrar.

(3) The Registrar may, after an investigation under subsection (1), where he is satisfied that there are good grounds for doing so, make an order, in writing, requiring the person specified in that subsection or, where the person is dead, his legal representative, to repay or restore the property with interest at such rate, or to pay contribution and costs or compensation to such extent, as the Registrar may determine.

(4) The Registrar may, on an audit, inquiry or inspection, require any officer, any person in his capacity of member or legal representative of a deceased officer or any member, having under his control or in his custody any money or property of a society, to deliver to him the money or property.

78. Powers of inspectors

(1) Every person shall, where requested to do so, produce to an inspector any document, book or record in his custody, and shall give to the inspector all assistance in connection with the inquiry.

(2) An inspector may, by notice in writing, require any person who, in the opinion of the inspector, may give relevant evidence, to appear for examination.

(3) A notice under subsection (2) may require any person on whom the notice is served to produce any document, book or record in his custody.

(4) Where any document, book or record is produced to the inspector, he may retain the document, book or record for such time as he may consider necessary for the purpose of the inquiry and where the document, book or record is required by the society, the inspector shall allow an officer of the society to have access to the document, book or record during such time as he may consider reasonable.

(5) (a) An inspector may cause notes of an examination under this section to be recorded in writing and read to and signed by the person examined.

(b) The notes referred to in paragraph (a) may be used as evidence in any legal proceedings against the person referred to in that paragraph.

79. Costs of inquiry

(1) The expenses incurred by an inspector in relation to an inquiry, including the costs of any proceedings brought by the Registrar in the name of the society, shall –

(a) be paid by the society; or

(b) where the Registrar so directs, be paid by the applicant.

(2) Where a society fails to pay any sum which it is liable to pay under subsection (1), the sum due may be paid out of the Fund.

PART XII – DISPUTES AND ARBITRATION

80. Disputes

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where a dispute relating to the rules, management, business or liquidation of a society arises –

(a) among members, past members or nominees, heirs of deceased members or dormant members, persons claiming through members, past members, heirs of deceased members or nominees of deceased members;

(b) between a member, past member or person claiming through a deceased member and the society, its Board, an officer or legal representative of a deceased officer;

(c) between a surety of a member, past or deceased member or a surety of an employee of a society, whether past or deceased, and the society;

(d) between the society or the Board and an employee, past employee or an officer, other than a dispute arising between the society or its officers in their capacity as employees;

(e) between the society and any other society;

(f) between the society and its debtor or creditor; or

- (g) between a surety of a member, past member deceased member or the society and the creditor or liquidator of the society, the dispute may be referred by either party to the Registrar for determination.

- (2) Where a dispute is referred to the Registrar – (a) he may –
 - (i) hear and determine the dispute; or
 - (ii) refer it to an arbitrator, to be appointed by him, for hearing and determining the dispute; and
- (b) the Board shall appoint an agent to represent the society in the dispute and shall notify the Registrar accordingly.

(3) A creditor of a society may, in relation to a dispute between the society and the creditor, opt for the matter to be settled by arbitration.

81. Appointment of arbitrator

For the purpose of this Part, the Registrar may, subject to the approval of the supervising officer and depending on the complexity of the case, appoint as an arbitrator –

- (a) an auditor;
- (b) a person who has held the office of Registrar;
- (c) a person who hold or has held the office of Co-operative Officer and has not less than 8 years' service in the grade;
- (d) a person who holds or has held the office of Co-operative Auditor; or
- (e) a person who has knowledge of, and wide experience in, the subject matter of the dispute.

82. Procedure for arbitration

(1) An arbitrator may, in relation to a dispute, make a provisional order to preserve the existing state of affairs.

(2) Where the arbitrator so requests, the Registrar may appoint a secretary to record the evidence of the witnesses.

(3) Where a party who has been served with a summons to attend before the arbitrator fails to do so, the dispute may be adjudicated on in his absence.

(4) The arbitrator shall record a brief note of evidence of the parties and witnesses who depone before him and, on the evidence produced by either party, shall give an award in writing.

(5) (a) The arbitrator shall, within 60 days of his appointment, give an award or decision.

(b) Where an arbitrator is unable to give an award or decision within 60 days of his appointment, or within such extended time as the Registrar may approve, the Registrar may remove the arbitrator and, within 15 days of the removal of the first arbitrator, appoint another arbitrator.

(6) Any person who feels aggrieved by an award of an arbitrator may, within 21 days of the award, appeal to the Tribunal.

83. Attachment before award

(1) Where an arbitrator is satisfied, on affidavit evidence, that a party to a dispute is, with the intent to delay or obstruct the execution of any award that may be made, about to dispose of his property or any other assets, the arbitrator may apply to the Tribunal for an order for the provisional attachment of the property of the party.

(2) (a) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the Tribunal may, unless adequate security is furnished by the party against whom the order is sought, grant a provisional attachment order.

(b) The order referred to in paragraph (a) shall be valid and effective as a Court order.

84. Co-operative Tribunal

(1) There shall, for the purposes of this Act, be a Co-operative Tribunal which shall consist of –

(a) a Chairperson who shall be a law practitioner of not less than 10 years' standing, to be appointed by the Attorney-General, after consultation with the Minister; and

(b) 2 other persons having wide experience in the field of co-operative matters, to be appointed by the Minister.

(2) There shall be a secretary to the Tribunal, who shall be a public officer, for –

- (a) keeping a record of the proceedings of the Tribunal;
- (b) keeping in safe custody the papers and documents of the Tribunal.

(3) The Minister may co-opt any other person who may be of assistance in relation to any matter before the Tribunal.

(4) The Chairperson and members referred to in this section shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.

85. Proceedings of Tribunal

(1) The Tribunal shall have the power to hear and determine any appeal lodged under this Act.

(2) The Tribunal shall sit at such place and time as the Chairperson of the Tribunal may determine.

(3) Subject to any regulations made by the Minister, any case before the Tribunal shall be instituted and conducted –

- (a) in the same manner as proceedings in a civil matter before a District Court;
- (b) in public, except where the Tribunal orders otherwise with the agreement of all the parties or in the public interest.

86. Powers of Tribunal

(1) The Tribunal may –

- (a) make such order for requiring the attendance of any person and the production of any article or document, as it thinks necessary; and
- (b) take evidence on oath and, for that purpose, administer an oath.

(2) Any person who –

- (a) fails to attend the Tribunal after having been required to do so under subsection (1);
- (b) without reasonable cause, refuses to take oath before the Tribunal or produce any article or document when required to do so by the Tribunal;

(c) knowingly gives false evidence or evidence which he knows to be misleading before the Tribunal; or

(d) at any sitting of the Tribunal—

(i) insults the Chairperson or any member; or

(ii) interrupts the proceedings or commits any contempt of the Tribunal, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees.

87. Determination of Tribunal

(1) Where there is a disagreement among the members, the decision of the majority shall be the determination of the Tribunal.

(2) Subject to section 88, a decision, an award or a finding of the Tribunal on any cause or matter before it shall be final and binding on the parties.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with a decision or an award of the Tribunal within 21 days of such decision or award shall commit an offence except where the person proves that the delay in complying with such a decision or award has been caused by factors outside his control.

(4) The Tribunal may make such order as to costs as may be prescribed and such order shall be enforced in the same manner as an order for costs in proceedings before a Court.

88. Appeal

(1) Any party who is dissatisfied with the decision or award of the Tribunal may appeal to the Supreme Court.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be prosecuted in such manner as may be specified in rules made by the Supreme Court.

PART XIII – JOINT VENTURE, AMALGAMATION, MERGER AND CONVERSION OF SOCIETIES

89. Joint venture

(1) A society may, at a Special General Meeting, resolve to enter into a joint venture with another business organisation registered in Mauritius or any other country.

(2) Every society that enters into a joint venture shall specify, in the joint venture agreement, the sharing of the profit or loss, contribution of return on capital, delegation of authority and responsibility for operations and other decisions relating to the business.

(3) Every society that enters into a joint venture shall, for the purposes of the joint venture agreement, maintain its separate entity.

90. Amalgamation

(1) Two or more societies may resolve to amalgamate into one society by a resolution passed at a special general meeting of each amalgamating society.

(2) Where an amalgamation involves the transfer of liabilities by one society to another, the amalgamating societies shall give at least 3 months' notice of the amalgamation to the creditors of the societies.

(3) Any creditor of any amalgamating society shall be entitled to a refund of any sum due to him if he makes a request in writing to this effect at least one month before the date fixed for the amalgamation.

(4) Any member of an amalgamating society may, by notice in writing addressed to the society at least one month before the date fixed for the amalgamation, declare his intention not to become a member of the new society and he shall, on making the declaration, be entitled to a refund of his share.

(5) The Registrar shall, after receiving an application for the registration of the proposed amalgamated society, register the amalgamated society where he is satisfied that

(a) this section has been complied with; and

(b) the proposed rules of the new society are in conformity with this Act.

(6) Where the Registrar refuses to register the proposed amalgamated society, any aggrieved society may, within 21 days of the refusal, appeal to the Tribunal.

(7) The registration of the amalgamating societies shall, on the registration of the amalgamated society, be cancelled.

(8) The registration of the amalgamated society shall be sufficient conveyance to transfer the assets and liabilities of the amalgamating societies to the amalgamated society and the members of the amalgamating societies shall become members of the amalgamated society.

(9) Any creditor of the amalgamating societies or any other person having a claim against the amalgamating societies, and whose claim was not satisfied before the registration of the amalgamated society, may pursue his claim against the amalgamated society.

91. Merger

(1) A society may, at a special general meeting called for that purpose, resolve to merge with another society by transferring its assets and liabilities to another society which is prepared to accept the assets, liabilities and members of the transferring society.

(2) The receiving society may accept the assets, liabilities and members of the transferring society referred to in subsection (1) where a resolution to that effect has been passed at a special general meeting of the receiving society.

(3) The transferring society shall give at least 3 months' notice of the merger to all its creditors.

(4) A creditor of the transferring society shall be entitled to a refund of any sum due to him if he makes a request in writing to this effect at least one month before the date fixed for the merger.

(5) A member of the transferring society may, by notice in writing addressed to the society at least one month before the date fixed for the proposed transfer, declare his intention not to become a member of the receiving society and he shall, on making the declaration, be entitled to a refund of his share.

(6) Where the Registrar receives an application for cancellation of the registration of the transferring society and is satisfied that this section has been complied with, he may approve the proposed transfer of assets and liabilities and cancel the registration of the transferring society.

(7) Any society which is aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar under subsection (6) may, within 21 days of the date of the decision, appeal to the Tribunal.

(8) The resolution referred to in subsection (1) and the approval of the Registrar under subsection (6) shall be sufficient to transfer the assets and liabilities of the transferring society to the receiving society and the members of the transferring society shall become members of the receiving society.

(9) A creditor of the transferring society or any other person having a claim against the transferring society, and whose claim was not satisfied before the cancellation of the registration of the transferring society, may pursue his claim against the receiving society.

92. Conversion into another class of society

(1) A society may, by resolution passed at a general meeting, resolve to convert the society into another class of society.

(2) Where a conversion involves the transfer of liabilities of the society to the proposed society, the society shall give at least 3 months' notice of the conversion to its creditors.

(3) A creditor of the society shall be entitled to a refund of any sum due to him if he makes a request, in writing, to that effect at least one month before the date fixed for the conversion.

(4) A member of the society may, by notice in writing addressed to the society at least one month before the date fixed for the conversion, declare his intention not to become a member of the new society and he shall, on making the declaration be entitled to a refund of his share.

(5) Where, after receiving notice of the proposed conversion, the Registrar is satisfied that –

(a) this section has been complied with;

(b) every member and creditor has received any sum due to him; and

(c) all legal conditions necessary for the conversion of the society have been fulfilled, he may register the new converted society.

(6) Where the Registrar refuses to register the proposed converted society, any aggrieved society may within 21 days of the date of such refusal, appeal to the Tribunal.

PART XIV – DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF SOCIETIES

93. Voluntary dissolution

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a member of a society may apply to the Registrar for the dissolution of the society.

(2) No application shall be made under subsection (1) unless the member has obtained the consent in writing of not less than 75 per cent of the total number of members.

(3) The Registrar shall, on receipt of an application under subsection(1), appoint an inspector to –

- (a) investigate the affairs of the society for the purpose of the dissolution; and
- (b) make an assessment of the value of the assets and liabilities of the society.

(4) On receipt of the report of the inspector, where the Registrar is satisfied that the society may be dissolved, he may issue an order directing the society to be wound up.

94. Power to order dissolution

(1) The Registrar may, after carrying out an inquiry, issue an order directing that a society be wound up where –

- (a) the society has contravened this Act;
- (b) the society has failed to comply with any condition as to registration or management imposed by this Act or the rules of the society;
- (c) the number of members falls below the minimum required level;
- (d) the share capital, for a period of more than 3 months, falls below –
 - (i) 5,000 rupees for a primary society;
 - (ii) 10,000 rupees for a secondary society; and
 - (iii) 25,000 rupees for the tertiary society;
- (e) the sum of the share capital and the reserves is less than the accumulated losses of the society.

(2) No order under subsection (1) shall be made unless the society has been given a reasonable opportunity to show cause against the making of the proposed order.

(3) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that a society in respect of which an order under subsection (1) is made should continue to exist, he may, at any time before the cancellation of its registration, revoke the order.

(4) A society, in respect of which an order under subsection (1) has been made, may, within 21 days of the order, appeal to the Tribunal.

95. Appointment of liquidator

(1) Where the Registrar has made an order for winding up a society, he may appoint a liquidator on such terms and conditions as he may determine.

(2) No person shall be appointed as liquidator unless he is a Principal Co-operative Auditor, an auditor or a person who holds or has held office as Co-operative Officer for at least 8 years.

(3) A liquidator shall, on appointment –

- (a) take immediate control of all the assets of the society and all books, records and such other documents pertaining to its business; and
- (b) take such steps as he may determine to prevent the loss or deterioration of, or damage to, the assets.

(4) Where an appeal is made against an order to wind up a society –

- (a) all proceedings under the order shall be stayed until the appeal is determined; and
- (b) the property of the society shall remain vested in the liquidator.

96. Powers of liquidator

(1) A liquidator may sue and be sued in the name, and on behalf, of the society and may, subject to such directions as he may receive from the Registrar –

- (a) carry on the business of the society so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of its affairs;
- (b) fix, by notice in the Gazette and 2 daily newspapers, a day on which creditors whose claims are not recorded in the books of the society shall state their claims for payment, failing which such claims shall be excluded from any distribution;

- (c) investigate all claims against the society and decide on the priority arising between claimants;
- (d) refer to the Registrar for arbitration any matter which may be a matter of dispute under section 80;
- (e) give such directions, in relation to the collection and realisation of the assets of the society, as may be necessary for the winding up of the society;
- (f) pay claims against the society, including interest payable, up to the date of the winding up order according to the respective priorities, if any, in full or to such extent as the assets of the society permit;
- (g) make any compromise or composition with creditors of the society;
- (h) call such general meeting of members or such meeting of creditors as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the liquidation;
- (i) determine whether any person is a member, past member or nominee of a deceased member;
- (j) determine the debt due by a member of the society and ensure its collection;
- (k) arrange, with the approval of the Registrar, for the realisation of the assets of the society;
- (l) determine by what persons and in what proportions the costs of the liquidation are to be borne; and
- (m) do all such other things as may be necessary for winding up the society and distributing its assets.

(2) Any person aggrieved by a determination of the liquidator under subsection (1)(c), (j) or (l) may, within 21 days of the determination, appeal to the Tribunal.

(3) The liquidator shall not determine the debt due by a member under subsection (1)(j) unless the member has been given a reasonable opportunity to show cause against the proposed determination.

97. Duties of liquidator

(1) A liquidator shall deposit the funds and other assets of a dissolved society which are collected by him or come into his possession as liquidator in such manner as the Registrar may determine.

(2) A liquidator shall –

(a) at least once every month, submit to the Registrar a report stating the progress made in the winding up of the affairs of the society; and

(b) on completion of the liquidation proceedings, submit a final report and hand over every book, register and account, relating to the proceedings to the Registrar.

(3) A liquidator shall terminate the winding up process within one year of his appointment or within such extended time as the Registrar may approve.

98. Protection of liquidator

Where a society is in the course of winding up, no action shall be instituted against the liquidator, the society or its members except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms and conditions as he may determine.

99. Powers of Registrar on liquidation

(1) The liquidator shall exercise his powers in accordance with the order of the Registrar under section 95 and the Registrar may –

(a) rescind or vary any determination made by a liquidator and make a new order;

(b) call for all documents and assets of the society;

(c) require the liquidator to submit such further report as he considers necessary;

(d) order the liquidator to repay any money or restore any property which belongs to the society;

(e) order the auditing of the liquidator's accounts and authorise the distribution of the assets of the society;

(f) refer any dispute between a liquidator and any other party to arbitration;

(g) where the liquidation process goes beyond the period of one year or such extended time as may be fixed by the Registrar, or where a complaint has been made to the Registrar on the conduct of the liquidator, remove the liquidator from office; and

(h) in case of death, incapacity or removal of the liquidator, appoint another liquidator.

(2) (a) The decision of an arbitrator on any matter referred to him under subsection (1)(f) shall be disposed of within 60 days of the reference.

(b) Any party aggrieved by the decision of an arbitrator under subsection (1)(f) may, within 21 days of the decision, appeal to the Tribunal.

(3) (a) The Registrar may make an order for the remuneration of the liquidator.

(b) The remuneration of the liquidator shall be included in the costs of liquidation and shall be payable out of the proceeds from the disposal of the assets of the society in priority to all other claims.

100. Disposal of assets on liquidation

(1) Where a society is wound up, its assets shall be applied to the payment, in the following order of priority, of –

- (a) the costs of the liquidation;
- (b) all privileged creditors;
- (c) all deposit liabilities to its creditors;
- (d) all other liabilities of the society;
- (e) dividends in arrears on preference shares;
- (f) redeemable preference shares held by its members;
- (g) preference shares held by its members;
- (h) ordinary shares held by its members;
- (i) a dividend or bonus to its members; and
- (j) any balance to the Fund.

(2) Where the liquidation of a society has been closed, the liquidator shall give notice of the closure of the liquidation in the Gazette and in 2 daily newspapers.

(3) Notwithstanding any other enactment, any claim against a society shall be barred after one year from the date of the publication of the notice under subsection (2).

(4) The Registrar may, 15 days after the one year period referred to in subsection (3), cancel the registration of the society.

101. Fraud

(1) Where a society, against which an order for winding up under section 94 or an order of a liquidator under section 96 or an award or decision of an arbitrator under section 82 is made, disposes of its property with intent to defraud or delay the execution of the order, award or decision, the person, in whose favour the order, award or decision has been made, may make an affidavit of the facts and apply to the District Court having jurisdiction in the area where the registered office of the society is situated for an order calling upon the society to be examined before the Court.

(2) (a) The Court may, on an application under subsection (1), issue an order directing an officer responsible for the management of the society to appear before the Court.

(b) An officer against whom an order is issued under paragraph (a) shall be examined before the Court in relation to his property and to the property disposed of under subsection (1).

(c) After an examination under paragraph (b), witnesses may, with the leave of the Court, be heard on both sides.

(3) Where an officer against whom an order is issued under subsection (2) does not attend Court, the Court may issue a warrant ordering that the officer be arrested and brought before it.

(4) Where an officer against whom an order is issued under subsection (2) attends Court but, without reasonable cause, refuses to furnish such information as may be required from him by the Court, he shall commit an offence.
