- (2) A salary rate for a 12-month period from 1 July to 30 June (the relevant 12-month period) must be fixed so that—

where—

S_r is the salary rate for the relevant 12-month period

Su_r is the amount of the superannuation subsidy that will be payable (in accordance with the determination made under section 12(1)(b) and (ba)) in the relevant 12-month period

S_p is the salary rate for the 12-month period immediately before the relevant 12-month period (the previous 12-month period)

Su_p is the amount of the superannuation subsidy that was payable (in accordance with the determination made under section 12(1)(b) and (ba)) in the previous 12-month period a is the average ordinary time weekly earnings for FTE employees in the public sector as determined by the Quarterly Employment Survey for each of the 4 quarters of the previous 12-month period, added together and divided by 4

b is the average ordinary time weekly earnings for FTE employees in the public sector as determined by the Quarterly Employment Survey for each of the 4 quarters of the 12-month period immediately before the 12-month period referred to in item a, added together and divided by 4

P_r is the amount of any change in the personal benefit or potential personal benefit that the Authority is required to take into account under section 16(2)(b) of the Members of Parliament (Remuneration and Services) Act 2013.

- (5) If the result of the calculation $a \div b$, as those variables are defined in subsection (2), is less than 1, the Authority must fix the rates of salaries for the relevant 12-month period as if the result of the calculation $a \div b$ were equal to 1.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) limits section 24.
- (7) If the Authority is fixing a salary rate for the first time for a position for which there is no previous determination, the Authority must fix the rate consistently with a comparable position or positions for members of Parliament.

 - (a) for the purpose of remedying any defect or removing any ambiguity; or
 - (b) to deal with any new matter that was not dealt with at the time of the making of the determination; or
 - (c) if the Authority is satisfied that in all the circumstances there are particular and special reasons that justify a period of less than the term specified in the determination.
 - (5) Notwithstanding any term included in any determination, the Authority must review and issue a determination for each position that is subject to its jurisdiction,—
 - (a) in the case of the salaries of members of Parliament, at intervals of not more than 12 months in respect of each period of 12 months ending on 30 June; and
