

SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION 318.05*CLASSES OF EARNINGS (SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS) ORDER

1st January, 1987

LEGAL NOTICE 13 of 1987.

- 1. The title of this Order is the Classes of Earnings (Special Exceptions) Order. Title.
- 2. For the purposes of the proviso to article 32 and the proviso to article 51 of the Social Security Act, no account shall be taken of any earnings derived from services rendered: No account shall be taken of certain specified earnings. Cap. 318.
- (a) by any person in any post or assignment wherein special knowledge or know-how is required and the Minister is satisfied that the number of persons possessing such knowledge or know-how is very limited;
- (b) under articles 328 and 329 of the Civil Code; Cap. 16.
- (c) by any person as a director or holder of an equivalent office (including service as a chairman) of any bank or company or other body corporate in which the Government has an interest, and who is so appointed or nominated by the Government or by any body or person acting on behalf or with the approval of the Government; and
- (d) as a Commissioner for Justice appointed in accordance with the Commissioners for Justice Act. Cap. 291.
-