An Act to amend the law relating to the age of majority and to the time when a particular age is attained

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Age of Majority Act 1970.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on 1 January 1971.

Note

This Act is administered by the Ministry of Justice.

2 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Act means any Act of the Parliament of New Zealand; and includes any Act of the Parliament of England, of the Parliament of Great Britain, or of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, which is in force in New Zealand enactment means any provision of any Act (other than this Act) or of any regulations or bylaws instrument means any written document of whatever nature (not being an enactment)

Regulations means regulations within the meaning of the Regulations Act 1936.

Section 2 Act: amended, on 1 January 1987, by section 29(2) of the Constitution Act 1986 (1986 No 114).

3 Act to bind the Crown

This Act shall bind the Crown.

4 Age of majority

- (1) For all the purposes of the law of New Zealand a person shall attain full age on attaining the age of 20 years.
- (2) In the absence of a definition or of any indication of a contrary intention, the expressions adult, full age, infant, infancy, minor, minority, full capacity, majority, and similar expressions in any enactment or instrument shall be construed in accordance with subsection (1).
- (3) This section shall not affect any reference in any enactment or instrument to an age expressed in years.

5 Attainment of particular age

For all the purposes of the law of New Zealand the time at which a person attains a particular age expressed in years shall be the commencement of the relevant anniversary of the date of his birth.

6 Related amendments to other Acts

The Acts specified in Schedule 1 are hereby amended in the manner indicated in that Schedule.

7 Related amendments to regulations

- (1) The regulations specified in Schedule 2 are hereby amended in the manner indicated in that Schedule.
- (2) The amendment by this section of the regulations specified in Schedule 2 shall be without prejudice to any power of amending or revoking those regulations.
- (3) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, consequentially revoke Schedule 2 or any part of that Schedule.

8 Transitional provisions and savings

Sections 4 to 7 shall be subject to the transitional provisions and savings set out in Schedule 3.

9 Laws of Niue and Tokelau not affected

Nothing in this Act shall affect the law as it applies to Niue and Tokelau.

Section 9: amended, on 9 December 1976, by section 3(8) of the Tokelau Amendment Act 1976 (1976 No 122).

Schedule 3

s 8

Transitional provisions and savingsAttainment of full age by person aged between 20 and 21 at the commencement of the Act

1

Where at the commencement of this Act a person has attained the age of 20 years but has not attained the age of 21 years he shall attain full age on 1 January 1971.

Application of Act to instruments (other than wills) executed or made before the commencement of the Act and to wills of testators who have died before the commencement of the Act

- (1) The following, namely,—
- (a) every instrument (other than a will or other testamentary disposition) executed or made before the commencement of this Act; and
 - (b) the will or other testamentary disposition of any testator who has died before the commencement of this Act,— shall be construed as if this Act (other than section 5 and clauses 2 to 11 of this Schedule) had not been passed.

- (2) For the purposes of this clause and for the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the term instrument includes every award, industrial agreement, determination, or instrument of authority relating to remuneration or conditions of employment; and includes the Agricultural Workers (Market Gardens) Order 1967 and the Agricultural Workers (Orchardists) Order 1965, but does not include any other enactment.

Distribution of property as to which persons die intestate before the commencement of the Act

Except to the extent that section 4 of this Act and clause 1 of this Schedule enable a person to give a receipt or a discharge, or to assign or otherwise dispose of or disclaim rights or property, all property as to which any person has died intestate before the commencement of this Act shall be distributed in accordance with the enactments and rules of law which would have applied to it if this Act (other than section 5 and clauses 2 to 11 of this Schedule) had not been passed.

Funds recovered

Any order or directions in force immediately before the commencement of this Act and made pursuant to any enactment relating to the control of money recovered by or otherwise payable to a minor in any proceedings or as the result of the compromise or settlement of any claim for money or damages shall have effect as if any reference to the minor's attaining the age of 21 years or full age (however expressed) were a reference to his attaining the age of 20 years, or in relation to a person who by virtue of clause 1 of this Schedule attains full age on 1 January 1971, to that date.

Wardship and custody orders

Any order in force immediately before the commencement of this Act—

- (a) making a person a ward of court; or
- (b) made under the Guardianship Act 1968 or any enactment repealed by that Act,— which is expressed to continue in force until the person who is the subject of the order attains the age of 21 years or full age (however expressed), shall have effect as if the reference to his attaining that age were a reference to his attaining the age of 20 years, or in relation to a person who by virtue of clause 1 of this Schedule attains full age on 1 January 1971, to that date.

Maintenance agreements and orders

Nothing in this Act shall affect the liability of any person to pay maintenance under any agreement or order which is in force immediately before the commencement of this Act.

Vested interests

Nothing in this Act shall affect any estate, right, or interest in any real or personal property to which any person has become absolutely entitled, whether beneficially or otherwise, before the commencement of this Act.

Trustees' powers of maintenance and advancement

- (1) Where any trustee is empowered or directed by the provisions of the will or other testamentary disposition executed or made before the date of the commencement of this Act of a testator who dies on or after that date to pay or apply any income or any capital money or other capital asset for the maintenance, education, advancement, or benefit of any person, nothing in this Act shall have the effect of limiting that power or direction.

- (2) Where by any instrument executed or made before the date of the commencement of this Act or by any enactment in force immediately before the commencement of this Act any trustee is empowered or directed to pay income to the parent or guardian of any person, or to apply it for the maintenance, education, advancement, or benefit of any person, the trustee shall also have power to pay it to that person himself if that person has attained the age of 20 years.
- (3) Notwithstanding any rule of law, any will or other testamentary disposition executed or made before the date of the commencement of this Act shall not be treated for the purposes of this clause as executed or made on or after that date by reason only that the will or other testamentary disposition is confirmed by a codicil made or executed on or after the date.

Adoption orders

This Act shall not prevent the making of an adoption order or interim adoption order under the Adoption Act 1955 in respect of a person who has attained the age of 20 years if the application for the order was made before the commencement of this Act, and in relation to any such case that Act shall have effect as if this Act had not been enacted.

Limitation of actions

The change by virtue of this Act in the construction of subsection (2) of section 2 of the Limitation Act 1950 (limitation in the case of a person under disability) shall not affect the time for bringing proceedings in respect of a cause of action which arose before the commencement of this Act.

Enactments incorporated in instruments

This Act (other than section 5 and clauses 2 to 11 of this Schedule) shall not affect the construction of any enactment where it is incorporated in and has effect as part of any instrument the construction of which is not affected by this Act (other than section 5 and clauses 2 to 11 of this Schedule).
