PROCEDURE ON VACANCY

Filling of any office

7 (1) The following provisions of this Part shall apply to the filling of any office which the Commission is informed should be filled.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION REGULATIONS 2001

(2) For the purposes of this Part, the expression “fill an office” shall be read and construed as referring to the appointment to an office including the renewal of the agreement of a contract officer and the award of any scholarship, bursary or other financial assistance towards any academic or training course, where it is a condition that the person to whom the scholarship, bursary, or financial assistance is awarded shall serve in an office.

Vacant offices

Delegated appointments

9 (1) Where the office to be filled is one in relation to which powers to make the appointment have been delegated to some other person, that person, having satisfied himself that the office is one which should be filled and having informed the Director accordingly, shall proceed to fill the office acting in accordance with the principles and formalities set out in this Part and Part IV in so far as they are applicable.

(2) All advertisements referring to offices to be filled shall be approved and placed by the Secretary.

(3) The Commission may authorize the person to whom such powers have been delegated to dispense with the compliance with any formalities in relation to any particular office or any class of office.

(2) No office shall be advertised under paragraph (1)(b) before such time as it has been advertised under paragraph (1)(a).

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION REGULATIONS 2001

Reasonable time

Special exception to Regulations 10 to 12 in certain cases

13 Where the Commission considers that a candidate for an office is fit for appointment to another office which is vacant, the Commission may recommend him for appointment to that other office even if the vacancy has not been advertised under Regulations 10 to 12.

Commission may require information

14 The Commission may require any applicant to—

- (a) submit to it such information and documents; and

(b) the candidate in the higher category of preference is fit to be appointed,

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION REGULATIONS 2001

the Commission shall recommend the candidate in the higher category of preference even if the other candidate is more fit or no less fit.

(10) The Commission may recommend a non-Bermudian for appointment to an office for a term exceeding three years but not exceeding five years if either—

- (a) the Commission for special reasons sees fit in the particular case; or
- (b) the office in question is an office in the Police Force.

(11) Notwithstanding paragraphs (5), (9) and (10), where a non-Bermudian has been employed for a period of not less than five consecutive years as an officer in the Police Service, the Commission may recommend him for permanent appointment to an established office in that Service.

(12) For the purposes of paragraphs (5), (7) and (9) of this Regulation, a person is the spouse of a Bermudian if the person has spouse's employment rights under section 60(3) of the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act 1956.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), the Head of Department, or some other senior officer of his department designated by him, shall submit in writing to the Commission at two-monthly intervals throughout the probationary period a report upon any officer in his department who is subject to probation as to his aptitude, suitability and performance of his duties.

(5) Where any appointment to an office is subject to probation, the Commission may at any time before the period of probation has expired, either of their own motion or at the instance of the Head of Department, recommend to the Governor that the appointment be terminated forthwith.

(6) After considering all the reports submitted under paragraph (3) or (4) and such other reports or representations as it regards as necessary, the Commission shall either—

- (b) order that the period of probation be extended for such further period as the Commission may specify; or
- (c) recommend to the Governor that the appointment of the officer be terminated at the expiry of the period of probation.

(7) Where the appointment of an officer is to be terminated in accordance with paragraph (5) or (6) and the officer concerned was, prior to his appointment, the substantive holder of another established office, the Commission may further recommend to the Governor that he be offered appointment to some further office appropriate to his qualifications at a grade not lower than the office which he vacated when he took up the appointment which is being terminated.

Annual performance reports

22 (1) Every Head of Department shall make and submit written performance reports to the Commission on officers serving in their departments in such form and by such date as the Commission may prescribe.
