Application

3.

—(1) Subject to paragraph \(2\), these Regulations shall apply to a self-employed person who has derived from Singapore or received from outside Singapore, in respect of any trade, business, profession or vocation, income of more than $6,000 in any relevant year.

(2) Paragraph \(1\) and regulations 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 18 shall not apply to a Member of Parliament in respect of any allowance or honorarium or additional allowance received by him.

Amount of contributions

—(1) Subject to paragraph \(2\), every self-employed person to whom these Regulations apply shall pay contributions into the Fund on his own behalf —

at the applicable rate specified in the second column of items 1 to 11 in the First Schedule in respect of the period specified in the first column thereto;

(b) at the applicable rate specified in the second, third and fourth columns of item 12 in the First Schedule in respect of each relevant year in the period from 1st January 2007 to 31st December 2009;

(c) at the applicable rate specified in the second, third and fourth columns of item 13 in the First Schedule in respect of the relevant year beginning 1st January 2010;

[S 507/2011 wef 01/09/2011]

(d)

at the applicable rate specified in the second, third and fourth columns of item 14 in the First Schedule in respect of the relevant year beginning 1st January 2011;

[S 507/2011 wef 01/09/2011]

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

(e) at the applicable rate specified in the second, third and fourth columns of item 15 in the First Schedule in respect of the relevant year beginning 1st January 2012; and

[S 507/2011 wef 01/09/2011]

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

(f) at the applicable rate specified in the second, third, fourth and fifth columns of item 16 in the First Schedule in respect of the relevant year beginning 1st January 2013 and every subsequent relevant year.

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

[S 484/2010 wef 01/09/2010]

(2) Every self-employed person to whom these Regulations apply and who is a relevant public officer for the whole or any part of 1997 or any subsequent relevant year shall, in respect of that year, pay contributions into the Fund on his own behalf equivalent to 6% of his income for that year or such other amount as may be determined by the Minister for Health.

(3) Paragraphs \(5\) to \(9\) shall apply to contributions payable in respect of any relevant year before 1st January 2002.

(4) Paragraphs \(10\), \(11\) and \(12\) shall apply to contributions payable in respect of the relevant year beginning 1st January 2002 and every subsequent relevant year.

(5) Subject to paragraphs \(7\) and \(8\), every self-employed person shall, before the end of any relevant year, pay contributions computed on the basis of his income stated in a notice of assessment issued by the Comptroller under section 72 of the Income Tax Act \(Cap. 134\) in respect of such income derived or received in the year preceding the relevant year and to be adjusted in the year immediately following the relevant year in accordance with regulation 6.

(6) Where, as at 1st July of the year 1992 or as at 1st January of any subsequent relevant year, the notice of assessment in respect of his income derived or received in the preceding year has not been issued by the Comptroller, the self-employed person shall pay the contributions computed on the basis of the income stated in his most recent notice of assessment issued by the Comptroller.

(7) Where, as at 1st July of the year 1992 or as at 1st January of any subsequent relevant year, no notice of assessment has been previously issued by the Comptroller to a self-employed person but the Comptroller has previously informed that person that on the basis of the income declared in the return of income submitted by him he is not liable to pay income tax, he shall pay the contributions on the basis of the income declared in such return.

(8) Where, as at 1st January of any relevant year, no notice of assessment has been previously issued by the Comptroller to a self-employed person but a notice of computation has been issued to that person, he shall pay the contributions on the basis of the income stated in the most recent notice of computation.

(9) The contributions payable by a self-employed person in respect of any relevant year before 1st January 2002 —

(a) shall be paid —

(i) before the end of the relevant year; or

(ii) where the Board has extended the period for payment, within such period as may be extended by the Board; and

(b) may be paid in instalments, so long as the total amount of contributions is paid within the relevant period referred to in sub-paragraph \(a\).

(10) The contributions payable by a self-employed person in respect of the relevant year beginning 1st January 2002 and any subsequent relevant year —

(a) shall be paid —

(i) within 30 days after the date of issue of the notice of computation for the relevant year; or

(ii) where the Board has extended the period for payment in any particular case, within such period as may be extended by the Board; and

(11) Subject to regulation 6\(3\), the contributions referred to in paragraph \(10\) shall be computed on the basis of the self-employed person's income as stated in — the notice of assessment issued by the Comptroller under section 72 of the Income Tax Act \(Cap. 134\) in respect of the income he derived or received in the relevant year; or the return of income submitted by him to the Comptroller in respect of the income he derived or received in the relevant year if the Comptroller has informed him that on the basis of the income declared in such return, he is not liable to pay income tax.

(a)

(b)

(12) [~~Deleted by S 275/2012 wef 11/06/2012~~]

Contributions payable by Member of Parliament

5.

—(1) Every Member of Parliament shall, in each calendar month and on his own behalf, pay contributions into the Fund in respect of his allowance or honorarium and additional allowance at the following rates:

(a)

if the Member of Parliament is eligible for any pension or gratuity under the provisions of the Parliamentary Pensions Act \(Cap. 219\), the rates of contribution set out in paragraph 1 of the Second Schedule; or if the Member of Parliament is not eligible for any pension or gratuity under the provisions of the Parliamentary Pensions Act, the rates of contribution set out in paragraph 2 of the Second Schedule.

(b)

(2) The Clerk of Parliament shall — be entitled to deduct from the allowance or honorarium and additional allowance payable to a Member of Parliament, at the time of each such payment, the amount of contributions payable by the Member of Parliament under paragraph \(1\); and

pay the amount deducted under sub-paragraph \(a\) into the Fund not later than 14 days after the end of the month in respect of which the contributions are payable.

(3) The contributions payable under paragraph \(1\) shall be in addition to any other contributions the Member of Parliament may be liable to pay into the Fund under the Act or any regulations made under section 77\(1\) of the Act.

Recomputation of contributions

—(1) When the notice of assessment in respect of the income derived or received by a self-employed person in any relevant year is subsequently issued by the Comptroller after the end of the relevant year, the amount of contributions payable by the person shall be recomputed on the basis of the amount of income stated in that assessment.

(2) Where a self-employed person's income in any relevant year is not stated in a notice of assessment because his income is not chargeable to tax, the amount of contributions payable for that year may be recomputed on the basis of the amount of income assessed by the Comptroller and stated in the notice of computation.

(3) Where the notice of assessment in respect of income of a self-employed person for any relevant year is amended or varied on appeal or where a notice of additional assessment has been issued by the Comptroller, the amount of contributions payable by him for that year shall be recomputed by taking into account the amount of income which has been varied or added.

(4) Paragraphs \(1\) and \(2\) shall not apply to contributions payable by a self-employed person for the relevant year beginning 1st January 2002 and any subsequent relevant year.

Additional contributions

—(1) Where the contributions paid by a self-employed person for any relevant year recomputed in accordance with regulation 6 exceed the contributions already paid by him for that year, the self-employed person shall make such amount of additional contributions as is equivalent to the difference to the Fund.

(2) The self-employed person shall contribute the amount of the difference referred to in paragraph \(1\) within 30 days or such other extended time as the Board may allow after the date of issue of the notice of computation.

(3) Any additional contributions referred to in paragraph \(1\) may be paid in instalments so long as the total amount of such contributions is paid within the relevant period referred to in paragraph \(2\).

[S 153/2010 wef 15/03/2010]

Application to reduce contributions

9.

—(1) This regulation shall apply to a self-employed person who during the relevant year was also employed as an employee and where contributions in respect of such employment have been made to the Board.

(2) Any self-employed person to whom this regulation applies may apply in writing to the Board to reduce the amount of contributions he is liable to pay under these Regulations so that the aggregate amount of all contributions paid into his account (excluding contributions paid in respect of additional wages) for the relevant year does not exceed the maximum amount determined in accordance with paragraph \(3\).

(3) The maximum amount referred to in paragraph \(2\) shall be the following, whichever is the higher:

(a)

the maximum amount specified in —

(i)

the second column of items 1 to 11 in the First Schedule;

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

(ii)

the second, third and fourth columns of items 12 to 15 in the First Schedule; and

[S 507/2011 wef 01/09/2011]

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

(iii)

the second, third, fourth and fifth columns of item 16 in the First Schedule,

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

which is applicable to the applicant; or

[S 153/2010 wef 15/03/2010]

(b) a proportion of 12 times the maximum amount of contributions an employer is liable to pay in respect of the applicant's ordinary wages for the month as prescribed in —

(i)

the First Schedule to the Act; or

(ii)

the First or Second Schedule to the Central Provident Fund (Public Sector Employees)

Regulations 2011 (G.N. No. S 106/2011), as the case may be.

[S 507/2011 wef 01/09/2011]

[S 3/2010 wef 06/01/2010]

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b), the proportion shall be —

(a) ascertained by reference to such proportion of the contributions the Minister has under section 13\(4\) of the Act directed the Board to pay into the medisave account of the applicant; and

(b)

determined and computed in such manner as the Board may think fit.

Application to reduce contributions by Member of Parliament 10.

—(1) This regulation shall apply to a Member of Parliament who during any relevant year is liable to make contributions to the Board under regulations 4 and 5.

(2) Any Member of Parliament to whom this regulation applies may apply in writing to the Board to reduce the amount of contributions he is liable to pay under regulations 4 and 5 so that the aggregate amount of all contributions paid into his account for the relevant year does not exceed the maximum amount determined in accordance with paragraph \(3\).

(3) The maximum amount referred to in paragraph \(2\) shall be —

the maximum amount specified in —

(i)

the second column of items 1 to 11 in the First Schedule;

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

(ii)

the second, third and fourth columns of items 12 to 15 in the First Schedule; and

[S 507/2011 wef 01/09/2011]

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

(iii)

the second, third, fourth and fifth columns of item 16 in the First Schedule,

[S 439/2012 wef 01/01/2013]

which is applicable to the Member of Parliament; or

[S 153/2010 wef 15/03/2010]

(b)

a proportion of 12 times the maximum amount of contributions that the Member of Parliament is liable to pay in respect of his allowance or honorarium and additional allowance for the month as prescribed in paragraph \(1\) or \(2\) of the Second Schedule, as the case may be, whichever is the higher.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b), the proportion shall be — ascertained by reference to such proportion of the contributions the Minister has under section 13\(4\) of the Act directed the Board to pay into the medisave account of the Member of Parliament; and

(b)

determined and computed in such manner as the Board may think fit.

Contributions paid in excess

11.

—(1) Subject to paragraphs \(2\) and \(3\), where the Board is satisfied that the amount of contributions for any relevant year recomputed in accordance with regulation 6 is less than the amount of contributions already paid for that year, the Board may —

treat the amount of contributions paid in excess as payment towards any future contributions which he is liable to pay; or refund the amount of contributions paid in excess to the self-employed person if he applies in writing for such refund within one year of the date of issue of the notice of computation.

(2) Where the self-employed person has not made an application for refund under paragraph (1)(b) within the time specified therein or if any amount is due to the Fund, the Board may retain the whole or any part of the amount of contributions paid in excess and set them off against any contributions or interest thereon as is due or may become due.

(3) The Board may require any person who claims to be entitled to any refund under this regulation or to have paid any excess contributions to the Fund to furnish such information to the Board as may be necessary.

Notice of computation

12. The Board may, in consultation with the Comptroller, carry out the recomputation referred to in regulation 6 and the self-employed person shall be notified in writing of the amount of his income for any relevant year, the amount of additional contributions payable or the amount paid in excess for that year.

Deferment of payment of small contributions

13. Notwithstanding regulation 8, where the amount of additional contributions payable for any relevant year —

is less than one dollar, it shall be disregarded; or

(b)

is less than such amount as the Board may determine, payment of the additional contributions may be deferred till the end of the year immediately following the relevant year or such other later time as the Board may allow.

Calculation of contributions

14. In calculating the amount of contributions payable under regulation 4 or 8, any fraction of a dollar shall be disregarded.

Contributions payable by persons who have not received assessment from Comptroller 15.

—(1) Notwithstanding regulation 4 and subject to paragraph \(2\), where a self-employed person as at 1st July of the year 1992 or as at 1st January of any subsequent relevant year has not previously received any notice of assessment from the Comptroller or any notice from the Comptroller informing him that on the basis of the income declared in his return of income, he is not liable to pay income tax, he shall pay contributions on his own behalf equivalent to —

$90 in respect of the period from 1st July to 31st December 1992;

(b)

$180 in respect of the period from 1st January to 31st December 1993;

(c)

$240 in respect of the period from 1st January to 31st December 1994;

(d)

$300 in respect of the period from 1st January to 31st December 1995;

(e)

$360 in respect of the period from 1st January to 31st December 1996;

(f)

$360 in respect of the period from 1st January to 31st December 1997 if the self-employed person has not attained 35 years of age before 1st January 1997 for the whole or any part of that period;

(g)

$420 in respect of the period from 1st January to 31st December 1997 if the self-employed person has attained 35 years of age before 1st January 1997 and is not a relevant public officer for the whole or any part of that period;

(h)

$360 in respect of any relevant year from 1st January 1997 to 31st December 2002 if the self-employed person has attained 35 years of age on 1st January in that relevant year and is a relevant public officer for the whole or any part of that relevant year;

(2) If a self-employed person informs the Board in such manner as the Board may require of the amount of his income, and satisfies the Board with such supporting documents as the Board may require (including any notice of assessment issued by the Comptroller and referred to in paragraph (3)), that the amount of his income is such as would render him liable to pay any amount other than the relevant amount specified in paragraph (1), the person shall, where the Board has in its discretion recomputed the amount he is liable to pay under regulation 4, pay that other amount instead of the relevant amount specified in paragraph (1).

(3) If the Comptroller subsequently issues to a self-employed person a notice of assessment in respect of the income derived or received in any relevant year beginning 1st January 2002 or any subsequent year —

(a)

the Board may —

(i) recompute the amount of contributions payable by the person for that relevant year on the basis of the amount of income stated in that notice of assessment in accordance with regulation 4; and

(ii)

issue a notice to him informing him of the recomputed amount; and

(b)

the self-employed person shall pay that other amount recomputed by the Board instead of the relevant amount specified in paragraph (1).

[\[S 275/2012 wef 11/06/2012\]](#)

(4) Subject to paragraphs (5) and (6), where the Board is satisfied that the amount of contributions that a self-employed person is liable to pay for any relevant year under paragraph (2) or (3), as the case may be, is less than the amount of contributions already paid for that year (whether paid before, on or after 11th June 2012), the Board may —

(b)

refund the amount of contributions paid in excess to the person if he applies in writing for such refund within one year from the date he informs the Board of the amount of his income under paragraph (2), or from the date of the notice issued by the Board under paragraph (3), as the case may be.

[\[S 275/2012 wef 11/06/2012\]](#)

(5) Where the self-employed person has not made an application for a refund under paragraph (4)(b) within the time specified or if any amount is due to the Fund, the Board may retain the whole or any part of the amount of contributions paid in excess and set them off against any contributions or interest thereon as is due or may become due.

(7) The contributions payable under this regulation by a self-employed person for any relevant year —

shall be paid —

(i) before 31st May of the year immediately after the relevant year; or

(ii)
where the Board has extended the period for payment, within such period as may be extended by the Board; and may be paid in instalments, so long as the total amount of contributions is paid within the relevant period referred to in sub-paragraph (a).

(5) Where the Board is satisfied that the aggregate of the amounts referred to in section 13B(3)(a), (b) and (c) of the Act which were contributed by or for a self-employed person in any year exceeds the sum prescribed under section 13B(3) of the Act for that year, the Board may refund, subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may impose —

to the self-employed person, the whole or any part of the aggregate of —

(i)
the amount (if any) which the self-employed person had contributed voluntarily in that year under paragraph (1);

(ii)
the amount (if any) which the self-employed person had contributed voluntarily in that year under section 7(4)(a) of the Act (not being any pecuniary benefit transferred under section 73 of the Act), if the self-employed person was also an employee in that year;

(iii)
the amount (if any) which the self-employed person had contributed voluntarily in that year under section 13B(1)(a)(i) of the Act; and

(iv)
where that year is 2011, the amount (if any) which the self-employed person had contributed voluntarily in that year under section 13B(1)(a) of the Act in force immediately before 30th December 2011; or

(b)
to any other person, the whole or any part of the aggregate of —

(i)

the amount (if any) of contributions (not being any pecuniary benefit transferred under section 73 of the Act or additional medisave contributions) which that other person had paid for the self-employed person in that year under section 7(4)(c) of the Act, if in that year —

(A)

the self-employed person was also an employee; and

(B)

that other person was an employer of the self-employed person;

(ii)

the amount (if any) which that other person had contributed for the self-employed person in that year under section 13B(1)(a)(ii) or (2)(a) of the Act; and where that year is 2011, every amount (if any) referred to in section 13B(4) of the Act which that other person had contributed for the self-employed person in that year.

(iii)

[S 727/2011 wef 30/12/2011]

(5A) Where a self-employed person is also an employee, and the Board is satisfied that the amount of additional medisave contributions which was paid in any year by his employer for him exceeds $1,500, the Board may refund, subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may impose, the excess to the employer.

[S 727/2011 wef 30/12/2011]

(6) The Board may require any person to whom any excess contributions are to be refunded to — submit an application to the Board for the refund of the excess contributions; and furnish to the Board such information as may be necessary for the purposes of determining whether any refund should be made under paragraph (5) or (5A).

(a)

(b)

[S 727/2011 wef 30/12/2011]

(7) The Board may retain the whole or any part of the excess contributions to be used to set off against any contribution or interest thereon which is due or may become due to the Board.

(8) In this regulation —

“additional medisave contributions” means the contributions paid by an employer under section 7\(4\)\(c\) of the Act specifically for the purposes of the medisave account of his employee;

“excess contributions” means any amount to be refunded under paragraph (5) or (5A).

[S 275/2012 wef 11/06/2012]

(2) Where any sum has been credited to a self employed person’s account in the Fund in accordance with section 14(1) or 57C(1)(b) of the Act, the Board may, if the Minister directs, apply the whole or any part of that sum or any interest thereon towards any contribution or interest which is or may become payable by the person to the Board under regulation 4, 5, 6, 8 or 15 for any relevant year.

[S 275/2012 wef 11/06/2012]

Registration

18.

—(1) Every self-employed person shall, before 31st December 1992 or within 3 months of the commencement of his trade, business, profession or vocation, whichever is the later, obtain, complete and submit to the Board a registration form as may be determined by the Board unless he has been otherwise notified by the Board.

(2) Every self-employed person, whose particulars have been provided by the Comptroller or any other authority or who has completed and submitted the registration form to the Board, shall be registered and allotted a reference number.

(3) Every registered self-employed person who ceases to be engaged in his trade, business, profession or vocation shall inform the Board in writing within one month of such cessation and if he subsequently resumes his trade, business, profession or vocation, he shall inform the Board in writing within one month after so resuming.

Request for information and returns

19. The Board may, by notice in writing, require — any person to furnish, within the time specified in the notice or such other extended time as the Board may allow, any information that may be required by the Board for the purpose of inquiring into or ascertaining that person's or any other person's liability under these Regulations; or any self-employed person, within the time specified in the notice or such other extended time as the Board may allow, to complete and deliver to the Board any return specified therein including a return of income for any relevant year or any other previous year.

(a)

(b)

Transmission of information by Comptroller

20. The Comptroller may transmit to the Board information on the amount of contributions payable by every self-employed person who has submitted a return of income under the Income Tax Act \(Cap. 134\) and computed in accordance with the provisions of regulation 4 on the basis of the income assessed by the Comptroller for the relevant year of assessment or any previous year of assessment.

Manner of payment

21. All contributions to the Fund may be paid — in cash at any post office in Singapore duly authorised to receive money on behalf of the Board; by money order, postal order or cheque drawn on any bank in Singapore delivered or sent by post to the Board's office; or in such other manner as the Board may from time to time determine in any particular case or class of cases.

(a)

(c)

Forms

22. All payment of contributions to the Fund shall be accompanied by such duly completed forms as the Board may determine and require for that purpose.

Service of notices

—(1) A notice or other document required to be served on any person under these Regulations may be served on such person either personally, by registered post or by ordinary post and to the last known address of such person.

(2) Where a person to whom there has been addressed a registered letter containing any notice which may be given under the provisions of these Regulations is informed of the fact that there is a registered letter awaiting him at a post office and he refuses or neglects to take delivery of the letter, the notice shall be deemed to have been served upon him on the date on which he was informed that there was a registered letter awaiting him at the post office.

Notice of change of address

—(1) Every self-employed person liable to pay contributions under these Regulations shall immediately inform the Board in writing of any change of his address, except that a self-employed person who changes his residential address shall be deemed to have informed the Board of such change in compliance with this paragraph upon his making a report thereof under section 8 of the National Registration Act \(Cap. 201\).

(2) Where any person has changed his address without informing the Board as required under paragraph \(1\), any notice or document given or served on him by posting the notice or document or a copy thereof to him at his last known address shall be deemed to have been duly given or served and shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of service.

Exemption

25. The Minister, or such other person as he may in writing authorise, may in his discretion exempt any person or class of persons from any or all of the provisions of these Regulations.
