

ILO TECHNICAL COOPERATION – CHILD LABOUR

Project Snapshots

National Time-bound programme	Supporting the Time-Bound Program on the Elimination of the Worst Forms of Child Labour in Nepal
	Duration: September 2001 – November 2007
	Donor & Budget The United States Department of Labor (USDOL) USD 4,553,732	Objective Creating an enabling environment for the elimination of the worst forms of child labour and reducing the incidence of selected worst forms of child labour.
	Results and Outcomes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Withdrew 8,860 children from work in pottering, rag-picking, domestic services, the carpet industry, mining, and trafficking for sexual exploitation. The program also prevented 1,748 children from entering these sectors of harmful work. • Strengthened legislation and enforcement on elimination of worst forms of child labour. • Improved policy on children and education to prevent child labour.

July 2014