

ILO TECHNICAL COOPERATION – CHILD LABOUR

Project Snapshot

Country Programme for Bangladesh - 2001-2008
Duration: April 2001 – August 2008
Donor & Budget Germany, Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation USD 581,293	Objective Combating Hazardous Child Labour
Results and Outcomes
Country programmes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Action programme proposal on hazardous child labour. • Action programme proposal on hazardous child labour according to agreement with IPEC. • Action Programme to combat child labour, Phase I. • Awareness campaign against child labour and capacity building of the trade union organisation to combat child labour. • Awareness raising programme for workers trade union leaders, teachers and slum dwellers. • Awareness raising, education and institutional linkage for the child workers on the building construction sector. • Child labour survival programme. • Child resource development program. • Duck farm, education and economic empowerment for rural working children. • Education and economic empowerment for children of commercial sex workers. • Education and information center for child domestic workers in Shoishob Bangladesh. • Education and skill development for child workers in tea plantations. • Education and skill training for children in hazardous work. • Education and skill training for children in hazardous work (Cobbler and domestic servant). • Networking and enhancing NGO capacity on child labour issues: phase II. • Non-formal education and training for rural working children at the Palong Women and Child Development Centre. • Para-trade skills training for working children in the urban informal sector. • Rayerbazar Child Labour Education Centre. • Safety training and welfare services for child workers in hazardous occupations, Phase I. • Social mobilisation programme against child labour. • Withdrawal of children from scavenging, begging and metal workshops in Mymensingh town. • Awareness campaign against child labour and capacity building of the trade union organisation to combat child labour.