

Ms Malika AÏT-MOHAMED PARENT – France/Switzerland

- Current position: Independent International Anti-Corruption Expert (since 2015)
 - Auditor: Auditor ISO 37001 (Anti-Bribery Management System), ISO 17021-9 (Conformity Assessment for bodies providing audit and certification of management systems)
 - Lecturer: Frequent Visiting Faculty, International Anti-Corruption Academy, Austria; Geneva University, Switzerland; Paris II Assas, France; and Frequent lecturer (CERAH, Fordham University for IDHA, Haute Ecole de Gestion de Genève)
 - Trainer: Training on Fraud and Corruption, prevention and control for private sector, NGOs, and International Organizations
 - Expert: Diagnostics and road maps in setting up Accountability and Transparency business frameworks, Enterprise Risk Management processes, Anti-Fraud and Anti-Corruption Policies

 - Committee/Board engagement:
 - Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations – FAO, Audit Committee, 2020 – present
 - United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees – UNHCR, Independent Audit and Oversight Committee, 2018 – present
 - Pro, Entreprise sociale privée, board member, 2019 – present
 - ICRC-IFRC Joint Commission for National societies Statutes, Chair, 2018 – present

 - Expert groups engagement:
 - Council of Europe, Economic Crime and Co-operation Division, Independent Expert (since 2020)
 - International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities, individual member (since 2021)
 - INGO Compliance Network, individual member (since 2018)
 - Association of Certified Fraud Examiner, member (since 2017)

 - Education and qualifications:
 - Masters of Arts in Anti-Corruption Studies, International Anti-Corruption Academy (Austria)
 - Masters in Management, McGill University (Canada)
 - International Masters Program in Practicing Management, consortium of Lancaster University, UK; McGill University (Canada); Indian Institute of Management Bangalore (India); Kobe Universities (Japan); INSEAD (France)
 - Masters in Economics, General & Public, Paris I Pantheon Sorbonne (France)

 - Previous Positions:
 - 2010 – 2014: Under Secretary General; International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC)
 - 2007 – 2014: Chief of Staff, Director of Cabinet, for three successive Secretary Generals; IFRC
 - 2006: Head of Middle East and North Africa regional department; IFRC
 - 2000 – 2006: Head of Principles and Values Department; IFRC
 - 1995 – 2000: Head of Youth Department; IFRC
-