

Seize the Future

~ Social Dialogue in the Workplace for a Brighter Future ~

Date: Friday, 14th June 2019, 17:30–19:00

Followed by a Reception from 19:00–20:30

Venue: International Red Cross and Red Crescent Museum (Restaurant)

Commemorating the ILO Centenary of 2019, the Government of Japan will convene a Symposium to discuss the role of social dialogue in the workplace both now and in the future.

At the event, we will welcome panelists with profound knowledge of the world of work and abundant relevant experience, including two distinguished speakers—Professor Atsushi Seike from the ILO’s Global Commission on the Future of Work and Mr. Yosuke Okuyama from Toyota Motor Corporation.

The keynote speeches will be followed by a panel-discussion. Considering insights from the Global Commission’s report and Toyota’s experience, panelists will discuss key approaches for achieving a human-centred, brighter future in the workplace.

17:30 Opening Speech

Mr. Junichi IHARA,

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, Permanent Representative of Japan

17:35 Keynote Speech

- “The Future of Work”:
 - Professor Atsushi SEIKE, the Global Commission on the Future of Work
- “Sharing Toyota’s Experience”:
 - Mr. Yosuke OKUYAMA, Group Manager, Toyota Motor Corporation

18:00 Panel Discussion

- Mr. Marcelo Abi-Ramia CAETANO, Secretary General, ISSA
 - Ms. Maria Luz Vega RUIZ, Coordinator of the Future of Work Initiative, ILO
 - Mr. Naoto OMI, Executive Deputy President, JTUC- RENGO
- *Professor SEIKE and Mr. OKUYAMA join the panel discussion

Moderator/Facilitator: Ms. Rie Vejs KJELDGAARD,

Director, Department of Partnership and Field support, ILO

18:55 Closing Speech

Ms. Chihoko ASADA, Assistant Minister for International Labour Affairs,
Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare, Japan