

Composition, agenda and programme of standing bodies and meetings
GB.341/INS/16

Comment from India

The World Council of Churches is a non-governmental organization which is religious in nature. It is observed that invitation to World Council of Churches as observer in the International Labour Conference may result in requests from other similarly placed religious organizations.