Addendum

Global Dialogue Forum on New Developments and Challenges in the Hospitality and tourism Sector and their Impact on Employment, Human Resources Development and Industrial Relations

1. At its 304th Session (March 2009),¹ the Governing Body decided that a two-day Global Dialogue Forum on new developments and challenges in the hospitality and tourism sector and their impact on employment, human resources development and industrial relations be held in the second half of 2010, and be composed of seven Worker and seven Employer participants, selected after consultations with their respective groups, as well as open to representatives of all interested Governments.
2. In view of the high level of interest in this Forum, to be held on 23–24 November 2010, the Office proposes that eight Worker and eight Employer participants be invited to attend. This increase in participation could be covered by the existing budgetary allocation for the Forum and would thus not have financial implications.
3. The Committee may wish to recommend that the Governing Body approve that one additional Worker and one additional Employer participant, selected after consultations with their respective groups, be invited to attend the Global Dialogue Forum.
