THIRD ITEM ON THE AGENDA

Appointment of the Governing Body Committee on Freedom of Association and the Working Party on the Functioning of the Governing Body and the International Labour Conference, as well as the Board of the International Training Centre of the ILO, Turin

1. Following the elections to the Governing Body at the International Labour Conference, it is necessary for the Governing Body at the present session to appoint the members of the Committee on Freedom of Association and of various other bodies from the ranks of its regular and deputy membership.
2. At the time of publication, only the lists of candidates from the Employers' and Workers' groups for the three organs below had been provided. The list of Government nominations, being subject to ongoing consultations, will be submitted orally to the Governing Body.

Committee on Freedom of Association

3. The Committee on Freedom of Association has a fixed membership of three regular members and three substitute members from each of the three groups. Its Chairperson is appointed from outside the Governing Body in an individual capacity.

Draft decision

4. The Governing Body appoints the members mentioned in Appendix I, as well as those communicated orally, as members of the Committee on Freedom of Association for the 2014–17 period.

Working Party on the Functioning of the Governing Body and the International Labour Conference

5. At its 305th Session (June 2009), the Governing Body decided ¹ that:
- (a) a Working Party on the Functioning of the Governing Body and the International Labour Conference would be established to consider how the governance functions of these could be improved in the light of the ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization, 2008;
 - (b) the Working Party would consist of 16 Government members, eight Employer members and eight Worker members, to be appointed by each group, Other members of the Governing Body could participate in an observer capacity, with permission to speak on authorization by the Chairperson.

Draft decision

- 6. The Governing Body appoints the 16 Government members communicated orally, as well as the eight Employer members and eight Worker members mentioned in Appendix II, as members of the Working Party on the Functioning of the Governing Body and the International Labour Conference. Other members of the Governing Body can participate in an observer capacity, with permission to speak on authorization by the Chairperson.
