

Abrogation of Convention 64

ABROGATION OF THE CONTRACTS OF EMPLOYMENT (INDIGENOUS WORKERS) CONVENTION, 1939 (No. 64)

The General Conference of the International Labour Organization, Having been convened at Geneva by the Governing Body of the International Labour Office, and having met in its 107th Session on 28 May 2018, and

Following consideration of the proposal for the abrogation of six international labour Conventions and withdrawal of three international labour Recommendations under the seventh item on the agenda of the session, decides this fifth day of June of the year two thousand and eighteen to abrogate the Contracts of Employment (Indigenous Workers) Convention, 1939 (No. 64).

The Director-General of the International Labour Office shall notify all Members of the International Labour Organization, as well as the Secretary-General of the United Nations, of this decision to abrogate the Convention.

The English and French versions of the text of this decision are equally authoritative.
